Nobody knows my disability like me.

The National Disability Insurance Scheme is coming to the Barossa, Light and Lower North.

What is the National Disability Insurance Scheme?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is a new way of delivering services and support for people with permanent and significant disability in Australia.

With the NDIS, people with disability can choose supports and services to meet their individual needs, rather than have to fit into a one-size-fits-all system.

When will the NDIS begin?

If you are already receiving disability services you will continue with your existing supports until you transition to the NDIS.

The Barossa, Light and Lower North region consists of the following local council areas:

- Barossa Council
- Town of Gawler
- Light Regional Council
- Adelaide Plains Council (Mallala)

If you would like to check if you are in the Barossa, Light and Lower North region go to www.mysupportmychoice.sa.gov.au

The NDIS will begin to roll out for people aged 18 to 64 in the Barossa, Light and Lower North from 1 July 2017.

Where can I find more information about the NDIS in the Barossa, Light and Lower North?

The South Australian Government is hosting a community expo to provide information on the roll out of the NDIS.

The Barossa, Light and Lower North expo brings together representatives from the SA Government, the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) and service providers, and gives you a chance to hear more and ask questions about how the NDIS will affect you. Everyone is welcome to attend this free community expo, but you will need to register.
