3. ENLISTMENT OF SKILLED TRADESMAN IN A.I.F.
(Authority A.H.Q.49225 of Jul.23 40.)

Reports indicate that in some cases tradesmen who have been enlisted are being retained on duties other than those for which their technical qualifications make them specially suitable. Immediate steps are to be taken to rectify such cases.

The following principles will apply concerning enlistment of skilled tradesmen:-

(a). Men who enlist under a false description of their occupation commit a military offence,and cause expense and disruption to their A.I.F. Unit when they are subsequently claimed for return to civil employment.

(b). A man who makes a false statement as to occupation and employer forfeits his claim for reinstatment after the War.

In order to allocate tradesmen to the best advantage it has been decided to obtain a census of all members of the AIF in the trades shown hereunder.

All Squadrons will obtain and submit to R.H.Q. by 20 Aug.40 particulars of personnel affected in the following form:-

Army No.	Name & Initials.	Rank.	Trade.	Previous employer and address (if known)	Remarks (including unit arrpintment).

2. WELFARE FUND AUXILLIARY.

A most successful concert under the auspices of our Auxilliary was given on Wednesday night last in Sydney and it is anticipated a profit of £35 - £40 will be realised. The Auxilliary is to be congratulated on their splendid effort and on the manner in which the function was organised.

It is felt a good deal more support can be given to the Auxilliary by relatives and friends of all ranks of the Regt. On Sunday next it is proposed to distribute a short written message on this subject to our visitors - all ranks can help to drive this home by suitable conversation stressing the fact that membership of the Auxilliary,however inactive individual circumstances may dictate,is a tremendous help and great encouragement to those whose circumstances permit of active co-operation. Names and addresses of prospective members may be handed to any Officer.
