991. MBI 153. FINANCIAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING ATTENDANCE OF REGULAR ARMY PERSONNEL AT CIVIL TRAINING ESTABLISHMENTS.

1. This instruction refers only to courses arranged by the General Staff as an official training requirement, approved by the Minister for the Army, and free of cost to the member.

Bonds.-

2. Personnel selected to attend courses at universities will be required to enter into a bond, of £500 for officers or £300 for other ranks, to remain in the Regular Army for a period of not less than five years after the completion of the course.

3. Personnel selected to attend courses at civil educational establishments, other than universities, in Australia may be required to enter into a bond.

Fees.-

4. The Department of the Army will pay the following fees, as required by the university, for members attending university courses :-

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2022.5.564

991. (Cont'd)

(i) entrance fee;
(ii) lecture and demonstration fees;
(iii) library fees;
(iv) examination fees;
(v) supplementary examination fees for one subject in each year;
(vi) tutorial fees (other than those university tutorials included within the course of lectures and covered by the lecture fees) to an affiliated college, and then only in special cases upon the recommendation of the university;
(vii) laboratory and experiment fees, including charges for material, only upon the recommendation of the university authorities.

5. In respect of educational establishments other than universities, the Department of the Army will pay all normal fees and charges. Fees or charges not normally included for the course in question, as determined by the establishment concerned, will be paid only on the approval of AHQ. In such cases, the member will make application to AHQ, through normal channels.

Books and Equipment.-

6. In all cases, necessary text books and equipment, such as instruments, tools, etc, will be issued on loan to the member during the course. Any necessary purchase of books or equipment will be arranged by AHQ. However, provided authority is first given by the DPSS, a student member may purchase specified text books privately. The DPSS will give such authority only where the item concerned -

(i) is not already held in stock; and
(ii) is not readily available for purchase through Army channels.

In such cases, members may be reimbursed for the purchase of any standard reference book prescribed for the course on production of a certificate from the educational establishment that the book is a necessary and standard personal requirement. All books and instruments may be retained for the duration of the course only. Books which are normally obtained from university, technical college, etc, libraries, as appropriate, or from public libraries, by students will not be purchased at departmental expense.

7. Text books and instruments issued by the Army or text books purchased by the member at departmental expense will be returned to the Quartermaster of the headquarters of the command or military district at the conclusion of the course, or at any time prior to its conclusion in the event of the member's being withdrawn from the course.

8. Commands and districts will ensure that proper records are kept of all books and equipment issued, as prescribed in Unit Stores Accounting Instructions.

9. Servicemen are particularly requested not to bring goods or personal baggage to AUSTRALIA for another person.

10. Failure to observe the above results in the baggage being placed in bond until the owner arrives in AUSTRALIA and also duty may be charged on the goods imported, irrespective of whether they come within the duty free £10 or not.

11. In order to assist the Customs Officer in assessing duty, it will be necessary for the value of each article imported to be stated on Form 5A or the special Defence Forces Form.

12. Servicemen are also requested to enter on the back of the Special Defence Forces Form, the total number of baggage to be landed.
