Guard by C.L.I.

Bas. HQ, Major Todd

Pointed out that when train is moved by siding a guard would be required over tar, stones, ammo etc. As this was their responsibility, we would like them to be able to provide it when necessary.

Major Todd stated they had already more guards than they could properly cope with but would take matter up with Base Comd. I will follow up.

Emergency Ry Units

AD Transportation (Lt Col BRYAN) advised that suggestion for establishing a Ry Cry from Ast. had been had & Comd with copy of this ltr

LO stated he thought that it was unlikely that such a large number of men (NIGS) could be spared.

Lt Col Bryan said he appreciated men were reqd for fighting & that a skeleton system could be run on fewer men, if an invasion occurred.

The Ry Cry of approx 120 Pilots and 370 Indian Spr had now arrived & would ease the situation considerably. Also the 4000 locals had applied to join the Ly Coy being formed here. These latter would require say 4/6 weeks to be trained & the Coy asked for from the AIF was designed to function, if necessary until the locally recruited Coy was ready. This explained why the scheme involved two Trains per day.

Am to see Lt Col Bryan after his HQ had considered his plan, if it was approved by Comd.

Provision of Guard

Interview with Gi Comd.

L.O. 2 CLI were detailed to guard amn etc. Approval was given by Comd for amn to be moved to post near train. Accordingly guard from CLI should move to siding.

Definitely not. If you are granted permission to remove amn from dump in CBO would you expect guard from CBO dump to move too.

L.O. I don't think that is a parallel example.

Gi. Well it is. I do not hold that it could be implied that the guard should move similarly when approval to move to arm & siding. it was NOT intended nor could it be implied that 2(L) would provide guard

2. Train comes under us for operational control only & therefore until such time as it is reqd, it was responsibility of Base to safe guard.

3. Quite so, & all is well. They are guarding arm at present. I undertake to get all together with stores etc & the train if necessary, well within time taken by engine & be prepared. If you wish to alter these arrangements, ~~[illegible]~~ we have given approval, but it is then your responsibility to furnish guards.

2. In view of necessity to carry out training, as well as help in other ways, and prepare defenses, then we are unable to provide personnel, now do we consider it our task.

3. In a hard I can't do anything further. Col-C has stated definitely guards provided by 2 CLI are to be kept to a minimum & B.C.S. has personally inspected all their posts & [illegible] NOT [illegible] NOT supply any more. The new
