W & H. 11.4.17.

He was in A Co., 1st Pltn. We were attacking at Bullecourt on the 11th April in the early morning. We took our objective and held it for 6 hours, and then retired to our lines which we hold. I saw L/Cpl. Burley in the German trench. He was in a dugout where other wounded were. He was wounded in the fingers - only slight wounds -. He was left in the dugout when we retired; there was no time to take any of the wounded away.
