He was a Pte. in D.Coy. 13th Pltn, 11th Bttn, med. height, and complexion, well built, very happy disposition. We were advancing under Machine Gun fire at Crepy Wood on 10th Aug, about 8.15 a.m. and I saw him hit by machine gun bullet in the head and killed instantly. I saw him lying dead and took his paybook which I handed in to the Orderly Room. I was his platoon Commander. We went on and did not come out for 3 days. All our dead were collected and buried and crosses erected. He was probably buried with a large number of others in the Bttn Cemeterynear Crepy Wood.

Jack Davie No 6749 was a Pte. in D.Coy. 13th Pltn. medium height and build, fair complexion. I was alongside of him advancing on Crepy Wood, near Libbans on 10th Aug. about 8.15. a.m. Machine Gun bullets got him in head and chest and he was killed instantly. We went on and I saw no more of him. I did not see burial but know he was buried near Lieut. Black, of 11th Bttn within a few hundred yards of where he fell. A great number were buried at same place, including 6 or 7 officers. A big Btn. Cross was put on his grave.
