"Missing 7-6-17"

I saw him killed at Messines. He was sniped through the head, whilst out with a carrying party, who were carrying up rations. I knew him very well, he was a L/Cpl. when he was killed, and was the only man of this name in the Coy. He was buried in the field just behind Messines Hill, and the grave was marked with a Cross, bearing his No., name and unit.
