Re 1837 Pte.S.G.Jarman, 36th Battn. He was in C.Coy., and formerly of 2nd Avenue, Campsie, N.S.W., and was with me on the morning of the 12-10-17. During the second advance I became separated from him, and did not see him again. It was rumoured by a couple of men nearby that he was blown to pieces by a shell, but no definite information could be gathered. Of those who knew him I understand I was the last to see him, and we were then a good distance from any Germans.

(He was a Cpl?) At Villers Bretonneux I saw him out in the open, just near the dumps, that we held on 4th April. He had right leg hurt, appeared to be blown almost off, above the knee. If the stretcher bearers did not get him he must be dead, he was bad then, white as a ghost. I gave him my bottle of water as I came out. He was in my Coy., I knew his name and number. About 28, dark, medium size, hair slightly grey.

K. 12th Octr 1917.

He was in D.Co. XIV Pltn. I knew him well, he was medium height and build, dark, clean shaved, about 25. We came over together in the 3rd reinforcement to the 36th Battn leaving Sydney on the 24th August 1915. On the 12th Octr we were holding the line at Ploegsteert During the afternoon we were being shelled. I was about 10 yards away from Jarman in the same bay. A shell dropped on the top of the Bay where he was and blew him to pieces. As far as I know nothing was found of him.
