I knew Casualty. He was a stout man, about 5'10, dark complexion, 23 years of age. He embarked from Australia with the 38th Btn. on the "Runic". Casualty was in the Ammunition Support Lines. He was going along Communication Trench to Support Lines when he was sniped in the head and killed instantly. I saw his body a few minutes afterwards. He was buried at Bondou (?) Cemetery and a Cross with his name, Number and Unit on it was erected over the Grave.

"There was a Warwick of about the same Number in my Co. He came from Tongala, Vic. He was killed during ~~the~~ Dec.1916 in Irish Avenue at Armentieres, being shot through the head while walking from the Front Line to Supports. He was buried in the Bonjean (?) Cemetery. A Service would be held, but I was not there at the time. A cross was placed over the grave."

Note:- Spelling of "Bonjean" may not be correct.
