T.Whitehall belonging to B Co. 2nd Pioneers was killed on 14th Nov. during the attack on the German line at Flers. I saw him hit in the head by machine gun bullet soon after he got over the top about midway between the two lines. His body is still lying out there as we were driven back. It lies on a ridge and anyone trying to get in bodies from there is sniped at by the Germans. His people live at Essendon, Victoria and were still writing about him when I left to go on leave about the 22nd Jan.
