AUSTRALIAN PIONEERS. 4.B. STUART, P.S. 3092

M.Aug.14th.1916.

About 5ft 6ins, lightish coloured hair, when excited stuttered, clean shaven, prominent nose, about 22. On August 14th, the 4th Pioneers digging a communication sap, at Pozieres. The working party left Camp at 2 a.m. Stuart was proceeding with party and along trench when a high explosive shell burst about four yds away, and a portion of the debris thrown up by same struck Stuart on his shrapnel helmet, stunning him a little. He started to proceed to the rear and was later helped by Private Young of B.Coy. 7th pltn. They rested in a dugout till 10 a.m. when they proceeded back to the bivouac in Sausage Gulley. Informant was Orderly Room Cpl. at the time, and had the two men reported to him as missing when party returned to Camp about 7.30 a.m. Informant submitted casualty report at 2 p.m. showing the two men missing, and at 3.30 was informed by the platoon Sergt. that the two men had returned to Bivouacs. Informant submitted another report stating the men had returned to camp, but through some mistake at Batt. H.Q. they were posted in Battalion Routine Orders as
