"Died of Wounds 26.6.18."

Pte. Walters, 17/Aust., was admitted to this Hospital from Ambulance Train on the 18th June 1918, suffering from Gunshot wounds of the left hip, cheek and head, fracturing the jaws. However, his general condition was good and the wounds seemed to be doing well, until the 26th June 1918, when suddenly he had a severe haemorrhage; the patient had lost a good deal of blood before the haemorrhage could be controlled and 15 minutes later he died at 2.30 p.m. He was buried in the Military Cemetery near this Hospital on the 26th June 1918 with Military Honours.
