	48th Battalion. A.I.F.		Captain FREDERICK ANDERSON.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. At ALBERT on 5th April the enemy broke through the Battalion on the Right and were trying to get round his Company. With great rapidity andxskill Captain ANDERSON placed two Lewis Guns in position on the flank and withdrew his Company in excellent order he himself staying with the last Platoon and directing the operation. It was due in no small measure to his skilful handling that his Company and the Company on the Left withdrew with very few casualties.
