				At Sunray Trench in March 1917 L/Cpl Collier		M.M.
	54th Battn.	5054	L/Cpl. COLLIER Joseph	~~During our last tour of duty in SUNRAY TRENCH this man~~ came under ~~my~~ notice. He was a Company Runner, during the period from 6th to 8th March, when telephone communication was impossible, through heavy shell and minenwerfer fire, continiously carried messages to F.O.O., with absolute disregard for his own personal safety. He has always set a fine example of courage and coolness under fire.
