187

1st Aus: Infantry | 1st AUSTRALIAN | 1st A.&.N.Z.Army | November 20th 1916

2nd Battn.	5780	Private	This man was detailed as an emergency bearer and carried wounded all night on the 4th-5th November 1916 from the front line to NO MAN'S LAND Dressing Station under very heavy Artillery and Machine Gun fire, and subsequently cheerfully responded to the call for collecting the wounded from "No mans land" Reg. Aid Post, during the performance of which duty one bearer -L/Cpl Fleming - was killed and this man himself was severely wounded.	O.C. 2nd Aus Field Ambce.	Military Medal.

Oscar Leslie
WHALEN

1916

Major-General
Commanding 1st Australian Division.

1916
Sup 3904