Major Arthur Charles Miquet OLDEN, 10th Australian Light Horse Regiment.

This officer was in charge of his regiment, which formed the advanced guard to the Brigade, when the latter was ordered to occupy JENIN on the 20th September, 1918. The regiment left LEJJUM and in 70 minutes had cut the roads leading from JENIN North and North-east, covering a distance of 11 miles. Parties of the advanced guard swept well to the North and North- east and thus took prisoners fugitives who were already several miles from the town. During the ensuing night this regiment covered the NABLUS Road from the South and captured
