The Secretary

Department of Defence

MELBOURNE.

Dear Sir,

I am returning the paper in connection with my Son Norman, but I would like to point out that I had another Son at the War, Lieutenant L.E.E.Whitaker who was in the Royal ~~Flying~~ Air Force.

He was first at the Flying School at Richmond near Sydney, then got his commission in Egypt, and then went on to England. He is now on his way back to Australia on the troop ship "Ulysses".

He was also born at Condong.

If you require any more information I will be glad to supply it

Yours faithfully

H.E.Whitaker
