Re Heritage Lieut
* note

Referring to Lieut Heritage 10th battn
C. I. F.

He was acting Captain & leading on his men at the time of death wearing three stars on his Shoulder, yet because the last few months of his commission were not completed nothing more was done in regard to it although he was acknowledged to have fought as well on every field. We, his relatives feel this is a little injustice for this reason.—
After ten months in the trenches at Gallipoli he had been carried out with Enteric fever & taken to Egypt. He was then sent home against his wish, but only allowed to remain here a month, during part of which he was ordered into camp at Bickham, although supposed to be on sick leave. On his return to Egypt he found every other officer had moved a step up automatically & quite irrespective of merit during his absence. I this further want to know who was responsible for this state of things? and why he was kept back from deserved promotion.?

I am, Gentlemen
Yours faithfully
Sarah Heritage
(His mother)
