Dr. Joanna Vince (nee Krasnicki): Dominic College 1989 - 1994

Dr Joanne Vince is a lecturer in the School of Government at the University of Tasmania, where she achieved a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree in 1998. Her Doctor of Philosophy degree was conferred in 2004. She received the Dean of Graduate Research Commendation Award for Outstanding Doctoral Theses for 2004 for her dissertation on 'The Development of Australia's Ocean Policy'. Her research was the first to explore ocean policy development in Australia since Federation and her dissertation will soon be published as a book for dissemination in the international policy world. She has a number of publications in professional journals. In 2005, with a grant from the University of Tasmania, Dr Vince completed a comparative study of Oceans Policies in Australia, Canada and New Zealand and has presented her preliminary findings at a conference in Dunedin. In the School of Government, Dr Vince lectures in a variety of subjects connected to public, social and environmental policy.
