

ST LAURENCE'S COLLEGE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS BEHAVIOUR POLICY/CODE OF CONDUCT

Vision statement

Behaviour Management at St Laurence's College is based on the Gospel Values of love, forgiveness and reconciliation which maintain the dignity and worth of the individual person. Behaviour management structures and procedures enable constructive and engaging teaching and learning environments. Its aim is to create and sustain a culture that promotes positive behaviour and personal responsibility so all in the community can grow and develop to their full potential.

Rights

On the Laurie's journey we exercise our responsibilities in upholding our shared rights:

- To feel safe
- To fully participate
- To respect (persons & property)
- To strive to be (our authentic self)

Responsibilities and Expectations

All members of the College community:

- Act in a safe manner
- Respectfully communicate with others
- Participate fully in activities offered, approaching tasks with confidence and humility
- Ensure their personal presentation is of a high standard
- Act in a way to ensure a clean and healthy environment for all
- Are good role models in and out of the classroom
- Engage positively in the learning and teaching process
- Strive to be their best and encourage others to do so
- Are willing to help and ask for help when needed
- Display a tolerant and inclusive attitude towards others.

Whole School Approach

To uphold these shared rights, responsibilities and expectations and enable a quality learning culture within St Laurence's College, we enter into a Whole School Approach with respect to the following procedures:

- Personal Presentation
- Home class procedures
- Entering a classroom (start of lesson procedures)
- Classroom participation that promotes learning
- Leaving a classroom (End of class procedures)
- Care for the environment
- Safety and Security
- Positive behaviour at school and in the wider community
- Appropriate use of technology including mobile phones, iPods, iPads, etc.

Lauries Journey

Young people in the community are on a journey into adulthood. They walk the journey with others, who support them and with Jesus, who guides them. Each person is individually unique and is encouraged to engage in developing positive life-giving relationships with all. On this journey all are encouraged to take pride in themselves and to have pride in St Laurence's College.
