Ingham's NZ takes out supplier award

Ingham's New Zealand has been named the 2016 Supplier of the Year in the fresh meat and seafood category at Countdown's Supplier of the Year Awards held in Auckland last night.

The company was selected from a vast field of suppliers, which included some of Ingham's largest competitors.

NZ Managing Director Adrian Revell said: "This is a fantastic result for team Ingham's and reinforces the value in exceeding our customers' expectations," he said.

"Ingham's has a long history of supplying NZ's major retailers, quick service restaurant operators, food service distributors and wholesalers. Ingham's NZ has worked hard to develop a strong brand with a reputation for quality and service and it is great that we have been recognised for our commitment toward our local kiwi customers.

"Thank you to the Ingham's NZ team because you have all contributed to this accolade," he concluded.

Countdown is NZ's leading supermarket brand with 183 supermarkets across NZ and a subsidiary of the publicly-listed Australian company, Woolworths Limited.
