Ingham's marks public milestone

After nearly 100 years under private ownership, Australia and New Zealand's largest vertically integrated poultry business – Ingham's – today listed its securities on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX:ING).

Ingham's is a well-recognised brand with a long history of success in the poultry industry.

It was established by Walter Ingham in Sydney in 1918 and grown by two further generations of the Ingham family before being purchased by private equity group TPG in June 2013.

Ingham's CEO Mick McMahon said: "The board is pleased to have achieved this significant milestone in the history of the company.

"We look forward to building on the company's history of success, strong industry fundamentals, and potential growth opportunities in the years ahead."
