

Kwe

nyenggən wuthu werrpanakata. nyakin wuthuka tyerrikang ngakata piyal.
tyerrikin yanggin kila. kiyin.

A man was sitting by the Fishing Lagoon. He saw someone standing in the shade of a Red Gum.
He stood up, walked closer and spoke.

G'day or Hullo	Puthekarr telkuk
My name is Warrangila	Nyarrindek Warranggila
What's your name?	Nyarringin?
My name is Kungaya	Nyarrendek Kungaya
It's good to see you.	Nyakanda walanggin telkuk-min
Where have you been?	Tumikalin windya?
Near Kerang	Nyuwa Kutyawap.
You're OK?	Telkayar?
Yes, I am well.	Nongwe, telkananda.
Your wife?	Mathimin?
She is sick. She wants to lie down and sleep.	Tyileka. Wantiwa kumba.
Where will you stay?	Windya putheka?
At my mother's house.	Lar kuyinggurek.
Do you have any children?	Pembengguk?
Yes. Two. Girl and a boy.	Nongwe. Puletya. Lerrk payingkuk. Wuthu payingkuk.
They are playing over there.	Nyetyenyabula nyula.
When will you go home?	Nyatyerruwarr withewiny?
Five days time.	Kepin manyə kiluwity.
I'm going fishing tomorrow. Do you want to come? Werrpananda perrpuk. Nyuka-waranda?
Yes. I love the river.	Nongwe. Kalinanda Kolety.
We'll cook Murray Cod in the ashes. You'll see.	Pawangal pandyil. Nyakinyarr.
Great. You're a real friend.	Telkuk-min. Kwe!
See you tomorrow.	Nyakarr perrpuk.