

Brisbane's best dumplings

From soupy xiao long bao to sizzling plates of gyoza, Natascha Mirosch shares her picks of the city's best dumplings.

Comments (4)

February 25, 2014

Like 153

Tweet 6

Email Print

Natascha Mirosch

New Shanghai

This venue is themed like a Hong Kong tea house. You can watch New Shanghai's dumpling makers as they roll wrappers then stuff and pleat a wide range of dumplings, from their signature xiao long bao to pork with chives, or a very good crisp bottomed pan-fried pork dumpling. Fillings are well balanced and the dumplings taste very fresh (as they should), but if we were being picky, we reckon the wrappers could be just a little thinner.

LG23 Queens Plaza, 226 Queen Street, Brisbane, 3108 7652, newshanghai.com.au