

Everyone is on a journey of faith. You may be like Mark Gilbert—Catholic from birth. Or you may have come to the Church later in life.

But perhaps your journey has stalled or been derailed. Or perhaps you have given up faith and the journey entirely.

Maybe you're at a point where the Church seems unable to answer the questions you are asking:

- Where am I going, and what is life all about?
- What is going to happen to the Church?
- What does the Church have to offer my children?
- Is it worth hanging in there?
- Is God just punishing me for something I've done wrong?
- Why do I feel so guilty all the time?

Whatever your situation, there is a real answer to these questions. When Mark found that answer, it turned his life around completely. He found clarity in his understanding of God, and certainty in his relationship with God. Join Mark as he shares his journey and introduces you to the answer he found.

FRESH THOUGHTS
ON CATHOLICISM

THE ROAD ONCE TRAVELLED

MARK GILBERT AND
CECILY PATERSON