Jonah 3:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, ² “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it the message that I tell you.” ³ So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, ⁴ three days’ journey in breadth. ⁵ Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s journey. And he called out, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” ⁶ And the people of Nineveh believed God. ⁷ They called for a fast and ⁸ put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.

Jonah 3:6 The word reached ¹ the king of Nineveh, and ² he arose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, ³ and sat in ashes. ⁴ And he issued a proclamation and published through Nineveh, ⁵ “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor ⁶ beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed or drink water, ⁷ but let man and ⁸ beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God. ⁹ Let everyone turn from his evil way and from ¹⁰ the violence that is in his hands. ¹¹ Who knows? God may turn and relent ¹² and turn from his fierce anger, so that we may not perish.”

Jonah 3:10 When God saw what they did, ¹ how they turned from their evil way, ² God relented of the disaster that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.
