

Celebrating 200 years in 2017

ORDER FORM

St Matthew's Anglican Church is celebrating 200 years since the laying of the foundation stone by Governor Macquarie on 11th October 1817.

A new and book about our history was commissioned by the Church Parish Council. Authors are Ian Jack and Jan Barkley-Jack.

The Honourable Dame Marie Bashir AD CVO launched the book at the beginning of our Bicentennial Year celebrations.

We are proud of this very substantial work that is available for purchase.
