

Australian Contingent Roverway 2018

Role Description

Deputy Contingent Leader

Roverway 2018

Roverway 2018 is a Roving event that will be held in The Netherlands in July 2018. The Australian Contingent will be travelling to the Drave Scout Centre in Portugal for their optional post-tour.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Work closely alongside the Contingent Leader in planning, coordinating and delivering a successful international Roving experience.
- Support development of a detailed risk management plan encompassing all aspects of the event.
- Assist with communication between the Contingent and the Roverway Organising Committee where necessary.

Key Selection Criteria:

- Demonstrated high level of attention to detail, excellent written and verbal communication skills, and an ability to keep detailed records of conversations and arrangements.
- Experience in the organisation of events and activities in the Rover Scout section.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Well-developed leadership and interpersonal skills – including the ability to develop networks.
- A passion for International Scouting.

Application Requirements:

NB. This position requires a significant time commitment in the lead up to the event. Applicants should ensure they have the flexibility in their time to be able to accommodate this significant contribution and be available during the full duration of the Roverway event and the Australian post-tour.

- Respond to the key selection criteria above including examples to highlight success.
- Include a brief history of yourself and your Scouting background.
- Explain why you have chosen to apply for this position.
