Congratulations to Tali Pearce 12PRM on winning a Work Experience Day with Channel 9. This is a great opportunity to see firsthand what a particular career is like.
Old Scholar Kim Phillips

Kim Phillips is an old scholar who graduated in 2005 and drops in to visit us from time to time when we love to catch up on what she is currently doing. Kim did the VET Hospitality (front of house) training in Years 11 and 12 and as a result had work placement in a local cafe as well as the Hilton. From these placements she was able to get part time work and begin a career journey in hospitality. Kim’s initial training through VET equipped her to quickly move on to supervisory, front of house, cellar door roles in a range of hospitality establishments throughout the Fleurieu Peninsula. Kim has worked at The Tin Shed, The Barn, Vasarellis, Settlement Wines, Hortas Noarlunga and Parri Estate. She is currently Restaurant supervisor at Penny's Hill and also working at Fox Creek. She has had hands on involvement in harvests and has also done some study and volunteer work in conservation. Kim has a great work ethic which often sees her juggling work at more than one establishment and being in demand from local employers.

When asked her favourite part of the Peninsula she replied; "McLaren Vale, because it is a beautiful place, close to beaches with great people and of course great food and wine."

Kim’s advice to students; "Find what you are passionate about and work hard at it."

Choosing a Campus

With Uni Open Days coming up this is a useful guide to consider.

This article covers important things to keep in mind when choosing a university campus.

University of South Australia Open Day

The University of South Australia’s Open Day will be held on Sunday 17th August from 9.00 am – 4.30 pm. For the first time they will be opening both the City West and City East campuses so students can see the facilities and experience more.

City West Campus

Students and parents are encouraged to visit the City West Campus if they are interested in education, art, architecture, design, social science, communication, business, law, IT, science, maths, engineering, aviation and environmental programs. You will be able to attend presentations, speak to staff and students at information booths, tour facilities and get involved with interactive activities. In addition, attendees can take a tour of the new $80 million Student Learning Centre.

City East Campus

City East is the campus to visit if students are interested in Health and Medical Sciences programs including human movement, physiotherapy, nursing and midwifery, pharmacy and medical sciences and medical radiation science. Students will have the opportunity to attend health sciences presentations and tour the campus facilities including laboratories, health clinics and interactive learning spaces.

Regular shuttle buses will run between campuses for students interested in a variety of programs and presentations.

UniSA’s Open Day is part of Open August, a series of events giving prospective students and parents a range of opportunities to visit their campuses, ask questions and assist with the selection of courses and careers.

University of South Australia Built Environment Preview Day

Thursday 28 August, 5:30pm – 7:30pm: City East Campus

This university offers the only Construction Management program in the state. This Preview Day aims to provide attendees with a taste of what’s involved in these disciplines and learn how to enter into a career in built environments.

http://www.unisa.edu.au/Calendar/Built-Environment-Preview-Day/

The University of Adelaide Open Day

On Saturday 17th August visit the North Terrace campus. To find out more about Adelaide Uni visit the Open Day website: www.adelaide.edu.au/openday. You will find a great deal of useful information and video uploads of the popular talks, shortly after the event. “What does it cost to study?” and “Beginners guide to uni” are just a couple of the topics covered.

Flinders University’s Open Days

Flinders University’s Open Days will be held on Friday 15th and Saturday 16th August, from 9.30 am to 4.00 pm. Flinders University Open Days are a fantastic opportunity for prospective students to see and hear what Flinders University has to offer – and to have some fun! Prospective students can talk with staff and students about their wide range of study options and what it is like studying at Flinders, take a tour of their campus, explore the online Course Navigator at the HUB, or check out the course information sessions, displays and other interactive activities.
Some of the activities include:

- Forensic Chemistry: a crime scene investigation of the edible type, using forensic chemistry for national food security and the wine industry
- Hands-on Robotics: activities for kids and adults with their lego NXT Mindstorms robots
- Vote for the first Australian President: the School of Social and Policy Studies conduct a mock election with prizes up for grabs for voters
- Enjoy the sights and sounds of Indonesian culture: The school of International Studies puts on performances and the opportunity to see where in the world International Studies can take you.

Limited spots are available on the bus visiting Flinders from school on Friday 15th August.

TAFE SA Justice and Policing Studies
(Taken from a letter recently received from the Educational Manager, Justice & Policing Studies, Property and Financial Services, Adelaide City Campus) www.tafesa.edu.au/justice-policing-studies

TAFE offers a range of different study pathways within its Justice and Policing Studies faculty and stress that apart from Law, there are many other excellent study and career pathways in the justice and broader public and private sectors that lead to successful careers and/or degree level studies. The Legal Services Program provides good job prospects and also an attractive further study pathway to Adelaide University Law School that includes practical training and opportunities for substantial relevant work experience along the way.

The three main areas in the legal and justice sector that have most appeal to school leavers and where TAFE SA Justice and Policing Studies can assist with study pathways:

- Paralegal (including pathway to Adelaide University Law School)
- Conveyancing
- Police & Law Enforcement

Paralegal: the Certificate IV in Legal Services (SATAC Code 701039 for face to face students and 701408 for on-line) is a one year course (longer part time) that is available by attendance or externally. There are excellent career prospects as a legal secretary, legal assistant or law clerk in law firms and justice agencies. Experienced paralegals are well paid. A significant proportion of students in this course are already working in law firms or justice agencies. These students provide an informal network in the class for school leavers to identify employment opportunities in the legal sector, and they do!

This Certificate articulates directly into the new Diploma of Legal Services. As almost all Diploma students are working in law firms the Diploma is part time, structured and paced with full time employees in mind. Diploma Graduates will be able to gain entry to Adelaide University Law School with some credits towards the law degree.

There are now three law schools in SA producing a relatively large number of Law Graduates every year which makes for an extremely competitive job market for new lawyers. The TAFE pathway to a professional legal career is worth considering because the practical training involved and relevant job experience in a law firm along the way could provide the edge to actually get a job as a lawyer.

Conveyancing: Students interested in careers related to the legal system could also consider the study and career pathway for Conveyancing. The Certificate IV in Conveyancing (attendance course SATAC Code 701347 or external course SATAC Code 701004) is a two year part-time course available by attendance or externally. The Torrens land titling system in use in SA is world best practice and requires diligence, attention to detail and skill. This qualification focuses on the development of legal knowledge and skills including those required for working in a conveyancing environment, reviewing and preparing documents and taking the file to settlement. This course will provide the students with the skills necessary for practical and clerical functions in the conveyancing industry. They will be able to seek employment as a conveyancing clerk, or in positions associated with conveyancing in the Land Titles Office, a financial institution or legal firm. Satisfactory completion of the Certificate IV in Conveyancing will enable students to undertake the Advanced Diploma of Conveyancing so as to become a registered Conveyancer and possibly establish their own business. Students who complete the Diploma currently enjoy generous credit recognition should they gain entry to the Bachelor of Government and Public Management at Flinders University.

Police: the Certificate III in Police Studies was designed by TAFE SA in collaboration with SAPOL as preparation for a career in policing. This 9 unit course runs as a semester length course (longer part time) either as an attendance course (SATAC Code 601319) or an online course (SATAC Code 601341). The course is delivered by a team of lecturers comprising lawyers and former senior police officers with extensive police training and policing experience. Participants receive extensive advice on the personal development and preparation required for successful recruitment into SA Police. Prospective recruits need a plan to address all the recruitment criteria (Google “achieve more” for details), and they need a Plan B too! Long term career prospects are excellent and SAPOL has multiple intakes for Police Cadets every year.

The following unsolicited written feedback was received from one of our students after a field trip to the Police Academy: “I mostly found that talking to the newer cadets was very informative and helpful as they were not that different to me besides the age gaps. I applied for SAPOL at the end of last year and got through the entrance exam but unfortunately they said that I needed to go out and obtain more life experience as I had only just finished school. Whilst talking to a few of the cadets they said that the exact same thing happened to them where they weren’t accepted the first time which really gave me extra motivation that if I keep trying harder in pursuing my goal, then I will become a police officer.”

If recruited by SAPOL the Certificate III provides a solid foundation for Police Cadet and Probationary Constable training (total 2 years at a salary of over $45,000 p.a.), and for further study and on-the-job training that leads to the Diploma of Public Safety, the Advanced Diploma in Policing and degree level studies. Although designed for SAPOL, the Certificate III course is also suitable as a preparatory course for other law enforcement, compliance and protective services roles e.g. Military Police, RAAF Security Police, border security, rangers, inspectors etc. Participants in the attendance course are exposed to these alternative career opportunities through field visits and guest speakers.

TafeSA - Property Sector

An update of the study options at TafeSA for career pathways in the Property Sector.

Property Management: from 2014 TafeSA is offering 6 nationally accredited units as a “Skill Set” in property management at a cost of $1100. Attendance is over 3 days. Alternatively, you can choose to study in distance mode. This course of study prepares students for entry level positions in property management in the property industry. Successful students receive an official Statement of Attainment. The 6 units are recognised as part of the Diploma of Property Services should a student wish to pursue further study.

Property Investment: this is a non-accredited specialised course costing $2970, and very popular. However it appeals mainly to a mature age cohort rather than school leavers. Information on this course is provided here for completeness in terms of what TafeSA offers in relation to the property sector. School leavers are advised to complete the Property Management skill set or the Conveyancing course before considering the Property Investment course.

TafeSA New Course in Sustainability

Diploma of Sustainability and Diploma of Carbon Management – articulating to a Bachelor of Commerce (Sustainability) at Flinders University (with 18 months credit).

At a time where university fees are increasingly becoming a factor in student decisions around tertiary education, this pathway provides one of the most cost effective and expedient pathways to a higher degree.

Diploma of Sustainability graduates (with the Diploma of Carbon Management as a co-qualification) articulate directly into a Bachelor of Commerce (Sustainability) at Flinders University with substantial 50% credit towards that degree.

This dual qualification provides students with an accelerated and low cost pathway to a highly sought after higher education qualification, with completion of SACE the only entry requirement.

In 2015 TafeSA will offer:
- Diploma of Sustainability at a total student cost of $1800
- Diploma of Carbon Management at a total student cost of $2775
- Equals 18 months credit towards a Bachelor of Commerce (Sustainability) at Flinders University for a total student cost of $4,267.

Costs are based on 2014 funding agreements.

If you are interested please call in to the careers office for further details.

Work Experience for 2014
BEFORE CONSIDERING WORK EXPERIENCE PLEASE BE AWARE OF THE FOLLOWING:

It is a legal requirement that prior to commencing work experience students are inducted in the following areas: Work Health & Safety Act 2012, Equal Opportunity and the Children’s Protection Act 1993. Adequate time (approximately 3-4 hours) should be allocated to cover these topics effectively and students need to demonstrate their understanding. This induction is done by the school.

In addition to this, the work experience form must be signed by the student, parent/guardian, work experience supervisor (all arranged by the student) and finally the principal (arranged by the school). The original (copies or faxes are unacceptable) work experience agreement form then becomes a legal contract which sets the school insurance cover in place and must be retained by the school for a number of years.

The school must also provide a contact person who is responsible for each student for the duration of their placement.

Work experience is a very valuable experience for most students however; it does take time to ensure that the above expectations are met. We are happy to accommodate students in the times allocated, please do not cause yourself or the school embarrassment by making other arrangements and then asking for exceptions to be made.

Students who wish to do work experience during 2014 are advised that the dates are:

29th September - 3rd October
Deadline for paperwork 1st September
1st - 5th December
Deadline for paperwork 3rd November

Work or job trials are not sanctioned by SA work experience guidelines. Please note this is general work experience only. Students undertaking a Vet program will need to organise their Vet work placement with the Vet Office.

Job Seeker Tips
Taken from the Guardian Messenger, Wednesday, July 30th 2014

Jobs agency Maxima listed the top five things NOT to do if you’re looking for work.

- Not doing the research:
  Know the role and the company and bring that information to the interview.

- Being uncontactable:
  If you’ve applied for a position, make sure you list a phone number or email address you check regularly. If you are uncontactable it will reflect very poorly on you.

- Lack of enthusiasm:
  One of the best ways to set yourself apart from the competition is to demonstrate enthusiasm in the role and organisation. Being the most enthusiastic is a fantastic way to demonstrate your value to an employer.

- Not being aware of your social media presence:
  Take a look at your social media pages before you apply for a job because employers certainly will. Make sure your online presence reflects you in a positive way.

- Thinking you’re the only applicant:
  Employers are being overwhelmed with applicants for positions so keep in mind that you may not be the most able or qualified person going for a job. Any interactions you have with employers should be polite. Remember to be patient while waiting for a response from employers.

New Options for Study at Flinders Law School

Flinders Law School’s Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice is truly unique: it is the only undergraduate degree in Australia that qualifies students for direct admission to legal practice. It does this by successfully integrating both the law and the professional skills required for legal practice within the 4 year degree. In 2015, the School will offer access to purpose-built dedicated teaching spaces in the modern and professional environment of the Flinders city campus in Victoria Square, the heart of Adelaide’s legal community. Students enrolling in the Flinders law degree can, if they so wish, now complete the majority of their face to face classes in the city – providing easier access to study for many who may not have considered Flinders as an option. Of course, classes will still be held at Bedford Park, providing for every student.

There are many reasons to consider studying the Flinders’ Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice:

- The course is shorter than most other courses leading to qualifications as a lawyer. Other courses require the completion of a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice or equivalent after a student completes the Bachelor of Laws.
- From their first week in law school students have the opportunity to take part in the legal advice clinic, advising real clients under the supervision of qualified lawyers.
- Every student does a 225 hour placement within a legal office as part of their degree.
- Provide a comprehensive academic study of the law in a broad context of social justice and law reform.
- Have a close relationship with the legal profession in South Australia. Involving the profession in teaching; in assessing professional skills; and in providing mentoring for final year students.
• Integrated skills program starts in the first year and gives students a range of transferable skills including interviewing, oral and written communication, negotiation, advocacy, collaboration, problem solving together with specific technical skills required for legal practice.

• Offer a variety of possibilities for study abroad and specific international study tours to places such as India and China.

Please do not hesitate to get in touch with the Law School should you require further information beyond that available on the Flinders website at www.flinders.edu.au/future and you can contact the Admissions/Prospective Students Office on 1300 657 671 or email at success@flinders.edu.au.
