

THE LONGFORD LYELL AWARD

First presented in 1968, the Longford Lyell Award (formerly the Raymond Longford Award) is the highest accolade the Australian Academy can bestow on an individual. The award is given to a person who has shown an unwavering commitment over many years to excellence in the film and television industries, and who has, through their body of work to date, contributed substantially to the enrichment of Australian screen culture.

The Award honours great Australian film pioneer Raymond Longford and his partner in filmmaking and in life, Lottie Lyell.
