

SEQ Small Museums Conference 2014 - Conference Program

Saturday 23 August Main Conference (Day 1)

Venue: Redland Museum, Cleveland

This program is subject to change as arrangements with speakers are finalised.

NOTE: Those accommodated on North Stradbroke Island will need to catch the Stradbroke Ferries Water Taxi departing Dunwich at 8:25 arriving Cleveland at 8:55

9:00 - 9:30	Registration and coffee
9:30 - 9:40	Ross Bower , President of Redland Museum, and Geoff Moore , President of North Stradbroke Island Historical Museum Welcome and Introduction to the Conference Theme
9:40 - 9:50	Evelyn Parkin , Quandamooka Elder	Traditional Welcome to Country
9:50 - 10:00	Cr. Karen Williams Mayor of Redland City	A welcome to Redland City and official opening of the Conference
10:00 - 10:45	Professor Amareswar Galla Executive Director of the International Institute for the Inclusive Museum Keynote Address
10:45 - 11:05	Morning tea
11:05 - 11:35	Frank Howarth National President of Museums Australia	The MA conference, priorities with respect to smaller museums, and the issue of accrediting museums and/or museum professionals.
11:40 - 12:10	Helen Klæbe Assistant Dean, Research and International Engagement for the Creative Industries Faculty, QUT Transmedia Storytelling: from interview to multi-platform
12:15 - 12:45	Rory O'Connor Director of Yugambeh Museum	Yugambeh Mobo (Yugambeh Tomorrow): connecting all of community to Aboriginal country
12:45 - 1:30	Lunch
1:30 - 2:00	MetteLiv Skovgaard Educational Development Manager at the National Museum of Denmark Happy days and hard times: Co-creating your museum with the visitors	Tanya Edbrooke Program Support Officer at The Workshop Rail Museum The Workshops Rail Museum, Workers Club Program.	Suesann Vos Abbey Museum The Digital Engagement Framework: every museum should have one. Perspectives and inspiration from Europe
2:05 - 2:35	Rick Thomason Exhibition Officer at Redland Museum Community involvement in the temporary exhibition program at Redland Museum	Jessica Stroja Historian at Ormiston House Memory, Identity, Community: Building relationships in the present while maintaining connections with the past	Kevin Wright Owner of Deep Creek Digital interactive multimedia business iBeacons museum tours: Latest AV & multimedia tech & apps for exhibits.
2:40 - 3:10	Joan Kelly Network Coordinator Moreton Bay Regional Council Museum Network Telling local stories through Community Partnerships	Dominique Macedo Gallery Support Officer Redland Art Gallery High Schools in Focus 2014: A school engagement initiative	Janis Hanley Museum educator and owner of Ed Program Design WWI Digital Story Telling using the History in Place Program kit.
3:10 - 3:30	Afternoon tea
3:30 - 4:00	Lesley Jenkins Freelance Historian, Writer, Curator and Digital Story Teller What Small Museums Can learn from Big Ones - 2 weeks at the Chicago History Museum.
4:00 - 4:30	Move to Toondah Harbour for Dinner Cruise

SEQ Small Museums Conference 2014 - Conference Program

Sunday 24 August Conference (Day2)

Venue: UQ Moreton Bay Research Station, Dunwich.

This program is subject to change as arrangements with speakers are finalised.

NOTE: Those accommodated on the Mainland will need to catch the Stradbroke Ferries Water Taxi from Cleveland at 7:55 arriving Dunwich at 8:25

8:30 - 9:00	Arrival and coffee at UQ Moreton Bay Research Station (UQMBRS)
9:00 - 9:15	Welcome and presentation on history of UQMBRS
9:15 - 9:45	Evelyn Parkin , Quandamooka Elder and Cameron Costello , CEO of the Quandamooka Yoolooburrabee Aboriginal Corporation Aboriginal Cultural Awareness in Museums
9:50 - 10:20	Stephanie Lindquist Director of Redland Art Gallery Effective children's programming for small art galleries and museums	Tracy Ryan Curator of Cultural Heritage Queensland Museum World War 1 Workshop: to discuss ways of working together to gain the maximum benefit from the centenary of World War 1.	Steve Chaddock Director of Timeline Heritage. Clever Custodians. Energy consumption and efficiency in small museums and galleries
10:25 - 10:55	Geoff Moore President of North Stradbroke Island Historical Museum "Hello. What are you doing here?" Does your museum structure reflect the diversity of its community?		Alan Bibby Operations Manager of Queensland Maritime Museum Alternatives to Volunteers; their availability and performance
10:55 - 11:15	Morning tea
11:15 - 11:45	Sandra Kirkwood Director of Music Health Australia Cultural Significance and Musical Development of Children in Small Museums	Delene Cuddihy Archivist at St Vincent's Health Australia, The Hospital as Museum and Gallery	Beth Jackson Director of Artfully The "Bimblebox: Art - Science - Nature" exhibition and its virtual catalogue.
11:50 - 12:35	Matthew Burns Goombi Trail Aboriginal Cultural Heritage
12:35 - 1:15	Lunch
1:15 - 1:45	Jo Besley PhD candidate and formerly Senior Curator of Social History at Queensland Museum and Museum of Brisbane. Learning from Cambodia: difficult histories as pathways to community cohesion.
1:45 - 2:00	Conference closure and wrap-up
2:00 - 2:20	Walk or bus to Stradbroke Ferries Water Taxi (departs Dunwich at 2:25). OR Walk to One Mile to join the Moreton Bay Environmental Education Centre Boat Trip via Peel Island to Cleveland (arrives Cleveland 3:30)		