

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES IN SCHOOLS

A THREE DAY COURSE WITH MARGARET THORSBORNE ON THE RESTORATIVE APPROACH TO IMPROVING STUDENT BEHAVIOUR

Tuesday 9th – Thursday 11th March, 2021
MERIDAN STATE COLLEGE – SUNSHINE COAST

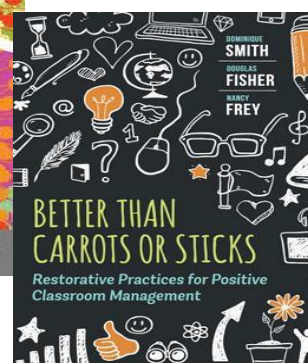

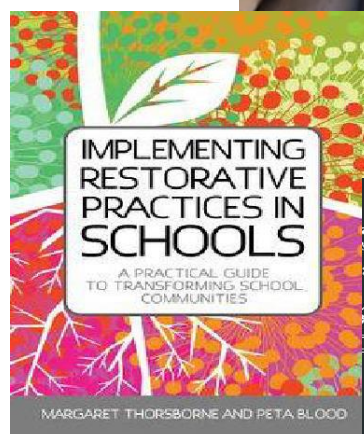

EVENT OVERVIEW

Restorative practice is a proven approach to discipline in schools that favours relationships over retribution, and has been shown to improve behaviour and enhance teaching and learning outcomes.

This three-day workshop will provide a comprehensive introduction to the restorative philosophy and develop the skills and resources required for implementation.

ABOUT MARGARET THORSBORNE

Margaret, with a strong background in education, youth counselling and project management is a renowned facilitator and trainer. She is widely recognised as an international expert in transformative school discipline and bullying. She has played a major role in the implementation of restorative practices into schools across Australia and internationally.
