Infections in Rural and Remote Queensland: High-Impact Learning

Inviting doctors and Health Professionals

This workshop will encourage participants to engage in case based discussions regarding contemporary practice updates of Infections in Rural and Remote Australia delivered by experts in Australian community-acquired infections.

Topics:
- Skin and soft tissue infections
- Respiratory infections
- Skin and Soft Tissue Infections
- Getting the most out of your microbiology lab
- Sexually Transmitted Infections: what’s new
- The weird and wonderful - rare Australian community acquired infections
- Exploring the Therapeutic Guidelines

To register for the workshop please use the link

Workshop Coordinators:
Dr Trent Yarwood (Infectious diseases physician)
Dr Minyon Avent (AMS Pharmacist)