Our 2019 Bluegreens Forum will celebrate 21 years of the Bluegreens, making us National's longest-running special interest group.

Bluegreens are part of a new generation of thinkers who believe that successful economic and environmental policy can and must go hand in hand in order to provide a cleaner, greener, brighter future for all New Zealanders.

In 2019, we will be holding our Forum at the Raglan Town Hall, 41 Bow Street, Raglan.

Saturday 23 February

Our Spokespeople will be leading discussions covering sustainable development of our Environment, Climate Change, Biotechnology and a zero goal in Waste.

Saturday Evening Dinner

The Town Hall in beautiful Raglan will be a fine venue to enjoy thought provoking sessions and share local food and hospitality. Guest speaker Nigel Watson, author of "Hillary's Antarctica"

Sunday 24 February

Our traditional Sunday fieldtrip will be a tour covering local zero waste sites and facilities.

Meet at the Town Hall at 8.45am - and return at 12noon.
