

Venue: Copthorne Solway Park Hotel, High Street, Masterton

8am Registration desk opens

9am Opening welcome/ Karakia

9.15am Forum Opening

- Lyn Patterson, Mayor Masterton District Council

9.25am Key note address

- Lord Deben, Chair UK Climate Committee live video link followed by Q&A session with Lord Deben

10.20am Key note address

- National Party Leader, Hon Judith Collins.

10.50am Morning tea

11.10am Forum Panel Forestry ... Friend or Foe. What role for forestry in a decarbonising environment?

Panellists: Mike Butterick (50 Shades of Green), Phil Taylor (President NZ Forest Owners Assoc.), Glen Thorby (Scion).

12.15pm Lunch

1.15pm Pitch a Policy – Opportunity for NGO representatives and attendees to pitch a policy idea (5 minutes max per pitch)

1.45pm Keynote address – Tourism and our Environment. What challenges does tourism pose for our environment? Andrew McCarthy (Office of the Parliamentary Commissioner for the Environment) led the project team on the PCE's report Pristine, Popular, Imperilled – a survey of the environmental pressures posed by tourism. He is well placed to offer perspectives on how we come to be where we are and what the future might hold.

2.30pm Introduction to new National MPs

3.00pm Afternoon tea

3.15pm Forum Panel Regenerative Agriculture. Slogan or substance?

Panellists: Jono Frew (Regenerative Ag Coach), Dr Doug Edmeades (Managing Director AgKnowledge Ltd), Prof. Richard Archer (School of Food and Advanced Technology, Massey University), Pete Barnett (Regenerative Ag Businessman – Owner Linnburn Station)

4.30pm Wrap up, thank you and details about dinner and Sunday Field trip.

6.00pm Pre dinner drinks (cash bar)

6.45pm Dinner

- guest speaker Dr Rod Carr, Chair New Zealand Climate Commission