

PRIMARY CARE

Special Interest Day

May 7, 2019

'Diabetes for General Practitioners' For General Practitioners and Practice Nurses

07.30	Registration opens – Welcome tea & coffee
08.30	Welcome & Karakia
08.45 – 09.15	Welcome Plenary - Compassionate Care and Mindfulness in Health Care. Speaker: Professor Leonie Callaway, Royal Brisbane Hospital, Australia
09.30 – 10.30	New Zealand, Equity and Type 2 Diabetes – the present situation Speaker: Brandon Orr-Walker
10.30 – 11.00	Morning tea among the industry exhibition
11.00 – 11.45	Younger Onset Type 2 diabetes – do we have an issue in NZ and what are the implications for management in General Practice? Speaker: Craig Jeffries
11.45 – 12.30	Diet and Exercise in Type 2 Diabetes – how important and what is the latest evidence? Speaker: Kirsten Coppell
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch & among the industry exhibition
13.30 – 14.15	New Medication and Technology – what's on the horizon? Speaker: Jeremy Krebs
14.15 – 15.30	Type 1 and Type 2 Diabetes – issues in insulin management. Clinical Case Studies. Speaker: Rosemary Hall
1530 - 1600	Afternoon tea among the industry exhibition
1600 - 1640	Closing Plenary - Interactive session with case studies lead by Dr Lalantha Leelarathna, Manchester Royal Infirmary, England.
16.45	Closing Remarks, followed by SIG networking reception
17.00	Networking reception

The Royal New Zealand
College of General Practitioners
Te Whare Tohu Rata o Aotearoa

Endorsed CPD Activity

The "Primary Care Study Day – Diabetes for General Practitioners" activities have been endorsed by The Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners (RNZCGP) and have been approved for up to 5.5 CME credits, for the General Practice Educational Programme (GPEP) and Continuing Professional Development (CPD) purposes.