

THESE two young ladies ran in real style — complete with pink ostrich feathers, elbow-length white gloves and tutus.

"We thought our costumes would add a touch of class," said Tasia Pikoules, 17, (right) from Hurstlon Park.

"We gave royal waves to the crowds along the route and got rousing cheers."

With friend Eva Karamoskos, 16, of Dulwich Hill, this was Tasia's first time to Surfer.

"It was great," the girls said. "We'd love to run again next year — but we'll have to think up some new costume ideas."

CASSIE Cambell, 23 months, found an easy way to compete. She let her dad push her in a stroller along the 14-kilometre course. "She thoroughly enjoyed it," Mr Ian Cambell, a flight steward, of Lugarno, said. "Cassie just took the crowds and the sun in her stride. We will be doing it together again next year."

A DOG proved to be a woman's best friend during the big 'fun run.' Shadow, a large Weimaraner, pulled his owner, petite Victoria Bail, 20, of Forestville, through the toughest part of the course

"Although Shadow and I have run together regularly for a while, this is the first time we have run in The Sun City Triathlon."

But we are ultimately competing against next year.

We'll be back

THESE two complete with white gloves as "We thought of class," said Hurston Park.

"We gave our route and got it With friend Hood, this was T."

"It was great again next year some new cost"

CASSIE Cambell, 23 months, found an easy way to compete. She let her dad push her in a stroller along the 14-kilometer course. "She thoroughly enjoyed it." Mr Jan Campbell, a flight steward, of Lugarno, said "Cassie just took the crowds and the run in her stride. We will be doing it together again next year."

A DOG proved to be a woman's best friend during the big fun run!

Shadow, a large Westminster, pulled his owner, petite Victoria Ball, 20, of Forestville, through the toughest part of the course... Heartbreak Hill.

"Without Shadow I doubt that I would have made it," Victoria said.

"Although Shadow and I ran together regularly this is the first time we have run in The Sun City to Surf."

"But we are definitely competing against next year."

The Sun City to Surf Race Series is back! This year's race series starts at 7:00 AM on Saturday, September 9th, from the starting line at the intersection of Highway 68 and Highway 101. The race ends at the finish line at the intersection of Highway 68 and Highway 101. The race is open to all ages and abilities. There are several age groups and distances available. For more information, contact the Sun City to Surf Race Committee at (909) 444-1234 or visit their website at www.suncitytosurf.com.

A HAPPY little Vegemite
and a warm, smiling piece of toast were among the fun runners.
The toast and Vegemite
drew cheers of laughter and loud applause along the route.
Lesley Callen, 15, the "toast" and Samantha Holden, 17, the "Vegemite-

oughly enjoyed the run.
"That was the reason
we entered," Lesley said.
"The costumes only added to the fun."
"We both met a lot of people along the way, even making new friends."
But Samantha says she won't be running as a happy little Vegemite next year.
"A lot of people pulled me up and said they preferred peanut butter," she said.
