Australian Teacher Aide Directors Message

Last month we told you that we had some exciting news and we have been hanging out to share it with you!

After much hard work behind the scenes, we are scheduled to launch our new look ATA website on Friday this week.

Teacher aides will benefit from many new and useful features, such as ease of searching for resources, a personal portal for tracking and recording PD, and schools and training organisations will now be able to manage their own accounts, making it much simpler when there are staff changes.

To guide you through some of these changes, have a look at the frequently asked questions on the next page.

In our last Member Webinar we introduced you to our newest resource: eTAPS, Effective Teacher Aide Practices for Schools.

This four part professional development program is coming soon, and will be a great resource for schools that are looking for PD for teacher aides during staff training and pupil free days. You can preview the Introduction to eTAPS on our new website.

We are keeping our fingers (and toes) crossed that the move to our new ATA website will go smoothly, and ask you to be patient if there are any minor hiccups. We would love to hear your feedback once you've had a look around.

Warm regards

Stella Liliendal & Mandy Bell

FAQ Finding your way around the new look ATA Website

How do I log in to the new website?

As you are receiving email communication from us, including this newsletter, you will automatically be registered in our new site as a member or a web friend, depending on your membership level.

To log in to the new ATA website:

- Click on “Log In” (top right hand corner of the ATA web page)
- Then click “request a new password”
- Enter your email address
- You will be sent a temporary password to gain access to your personal portal

*Full members must use the same email address used when registering as a member.

*Subscribers must use the same email address used to receive ATA communication

What is a Web Friend?

Web friends subscribe to ATA without paying for a membership. Web friends have the benefit of a private portal where personal information can be stored enabling quicker registration for ATA events. The portal is also a place for web friends to store associated PD records, such as worksheets and certificates of participation, and accumulate CPD points. As a web friend, you can browse Interest Groups and choose topics that you are most interested in receiving updates on when we upload new resources, event notifications etc. to the site. Web friends will have access to a limited range of ATA resources.

I am a Member, what's new?

Members will enjoy all the benefits of a web friend plus much more, including unlimited access to all webinar recordings and professional development resources along with priority registration to our live webinar events. Your Membership Certificate will be located in your personal member portal under My Content. As you attend future events, your certificates of participation will automatically appear here, as well.

What is an Interest Group?

ATA provides professional development across a range of topics. We have grouped our resources and events to particular Interest Groups. If you want to ensure you receive updates and alerts on new resources for particular Interest Groups, we recommend you select these groups as 'favourites' so that you never miss an update. Our Interest Groups include Literacy, Numeracy, Behaviour, Additional Needs, School Performance and Development, Inclusive Education, and eTAPS to name just a few.

What is the CPD Diary?

The CPD Diary is a brand new ATA feature that allows members to keep a record of their professional development. CPD points are automatically added to a member's diary when they register and attend an ATA event.

How do I register for a webinar event?

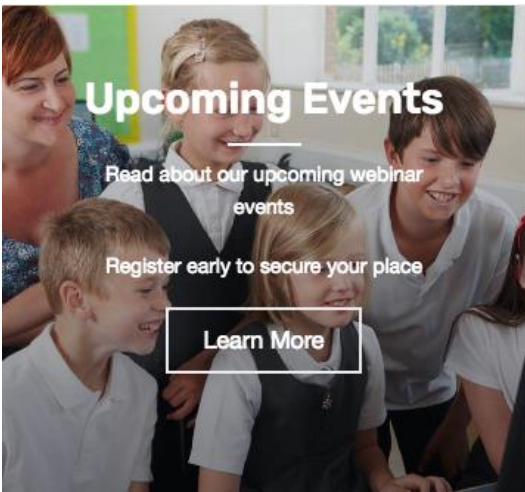

Step 1: Log into ATA site (all users)

Step 2: Go to 'Events' from the main menu on the Home page, select and open the webinar event you wish to attend and click 'Register'.

Step 3: Your details will automatically populate. Submit.

Step 4: Locate the 'Cart' in the top right hand corner of the Home page. Check out.

Step 5: A confirmation email will be sent to users following registration, with important information about next steps. The event will be listed in your personal member portal under 'My Events' and any associated resources such as worksheets can be found in 'Event Resources'.

Where can I find all the professional development resources?

All our professional development resources are located under the Home page menu tabs, 'Professional Development' and 'Resource Centre'. Our resources and webinars are now categorised into a range of Interest Groups. You can search 'All Resources' as well.

ATA PD CALENDAR

Register for all of our professional learning events such as member and community webinars, on the ATA website.

Community Webinars

It is free to join in our monthly community webinars, so make sure you register. The presenters are leaders in areas such as literacy support, strategies for supporting students with anxiety, bullying, and working with students with Autism. As a community service, ATA and our guest presenters, provide you with informative education topics that you would normally pay hundreds of dollars for, at a workshop or conference.

All our community webinars are recorded and uploaded to the ATA website, so members can enjoy continued access to these outstanding resources.

Tuesday 30 May: Assistive Technology for Students with Disability

There is always something new to learn when it comes to technology, and we have lots of people registered for this popular event, presented by Jeff Souter, who is an expert in assistive and inclusive technologies for Queensland State Schools. You can still register HERE.
