STANDING ORDERS.

5.

DISCIPLINE.

A. The existence of a proper subordination and a good understanding among N.C.O's is most essential to the welfare od a Detachment, a every N.C.O. should abstain from expression of discontent or disapproval of any orders or regulation emaninating from superior authority.

b. Implicit obedience to orders is the foundation of military discipline and therefore the first duty of every soldier, whatever his rank may be.

c. Zeal, punctuality, and precision in the performance of duty are required from every soldier, and N.C.O's should be careful as to the example they set in this particular to those serving under them.

d. N.C.O.'s will endeavour to obtain the obedience, respect and attachment of the other ranks. These are to be secured only by. a thorough knowledge of their duties on the part of the N.C.O's by distinctiveness in giving and firmness in seeing to the execution of their orders; by the most impartial justice, and by a constant zealous attention to the comfort and welfare of the soldier. Inconsistency and indecision can never command confidence.

e. N.C.O's will at all times preserve and uphold the authority of Officers, and the self-respect of each individual under their command.

f. N.C.O's will pay every attention to complaints and representations of those under their command. These must be made in a respectful and proper manner. Reports that may prove to be frivoulous or to arise from a spirit of cavilling , will not be allowed to pass uncensured.

g. N.C.O's will never overlook any irregularity or remissness on the part of a guard or sentry, nor fail to notice or correct any slovenly appearance or unsoldierly conduct in any individua at any time.

h. Should an N.C.O. be taken ill and be prevented from attending parade or performing any duty, he, will immediately report the circumstances to the O.C. and request medical attention.

I.. The mess premises are not under ordinary circumstances to be used to complete returns in, nor to receive reports.

J. N.C.O's will pay the utmost attention the the dress and appear ance of the personnel of the Unit, and will remember the effect of their own example. Whether on or off duty they should take immediate notice of any neglect or slovenliness in dress, either by promptly admonishing the offenders or by reporting them to the O.C.

K. Correct dress must be worn by all N.C.O's. at all times.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2019.366.3286

4. NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS IN GENERAL

(a) There is no circumstance by which the character of a Unit can be better estimated than by the conduct, character and appearance of its non-commissioned officers. It is therefore required that they shall evince the utmost zeal, activity and attention in the execution of their various duties.

(b) Wilful neglect of duty on the part of non-commissioned officers especially in allowing soldiers to commit offences and irregularities without taking proper notice, is highly reprehensible. Those who are guilty of such offence are untrustworthy, and the retention of their appointments is injurious to discipline. Overlooking offences must, sooner or later, lead to a general laxity of discipline. With regard to the crime of insubordination, the soldier should be warned on the slightest indication of insubordination of the inevitable consequences and prevention of crime will be the result. All that is wanted is a little reflection on the part of the soldier, and it is the duty of the superior to afford the offender the opportunity instead of exciting him by altercation or doing anything to provoke him to the very offence for which he is afterwards charged.

(c) A non-commissioned officer is never to come into personal contact with, or unnecessarily approach a soldier in arrest. When ordering a man into confinement, he should summon an escort, and private soldiers are to be employed for the purpose. The non-commissioned officer is to say as little as possible, only giving necessary orders. He will order another non-commissioned officer, if available, to command the escort. He will invariably report his action to the Battery Sergeant Major concerned.

(d) Non-commissioned officers are to exact the promptest obedience from all subordinates, and are never to allow themselves to be addressed but by the proper ranks and with becoming respect.

(e) Non-commissioned officers will stand to attention when addressing or being addressed by a senior. They will see that the Gunners do the same.

(f) No non-commissioned officer is to exchange his tour of duty without the permission of the Officer Commanding

5. GUNNERS.

(a) Unhesitating obedience to orders is the first and indispensable duty of a soldier. All Regimental orders and customs are to be strictly observed at all times by the soldiers, whether on or off duty. If ordered to act contrary to them, the circumstances should be reported to the O. C. for his information.

(b) Non commissioned officers, whether belonging to the same Corps or not, are to be treated by soldiers with equal respect; and their orders are always to be obeyed without distinction as to their Corps

(c) A soldier is never to enter into a dispute with a non-commissioned officer. If he thinks himself ill-treated or aggreived, he will first carry out what he has been ordered to do, and afterwards make a respectful representation to the Sergeant, who will see justice done or report the matter to the O.C. as the case warrants. But soldiers must be aware that the preservation of discipline will compel the Officer Commanding to punish any one who may be proved guilty of making false or vexatious reports against superiors.

(d) If a Soldier has received cause of complaint against a comrade, a case must be laid down in like manner, before the Sergeant. Redress of wrongs is not to be taken into own hands; for the harmony of the Det. cannot be permitted to be disturbed by quarrels and disputes.

GUNNERS (Contd).

(e) All soldiers must be aware that in the Army responsibility must be made general.

(f) When off duty, and especially on furlough, every soldier should uphold the credit of the Detachment, and his own respectability by appearing as clean and smart in dress and person as circumstances will admit, also by conducting himself with manliness and civility to everybody.

(g) Drinking to excess, more especially in tropical climates, should be avoided.

(h) The use of blasphemous, obscene and indecent language amongst soldiers is strictly forbidden.

(i) Soldiers are warned for all duties by means of daily orders and detail posted on the Deatchment notice board, and they will by held responsible that they make themselves acquainted with all the orders.

(j) Soldiers are not to go beyond the precincts of their lines without permission

(k) Smoking is strictly forbidden during the performance of any duty.

(l) The unauthorised possession of ball or blank ammunition is strictly forbidden.

(m) Soldiers are not to buy or sell articles of clothing, kit or equipment without permission from the O.C.

(n) No soldier is to alter any part of his regimental clothing without permission from the O.C. or cut or spoil arms or accoutrements

(o) When passing a funeral, soldiers will salute while the corpse passes

(p) When not on parade soldiers will stand to attention when the National Anthem is played.

(q) The wearing of regulation boots is compulsory except for those persons exempted from time to time in M.O's orders.

(r) All ranks are reminded that a soldier who is suffering from venereal disease must report himself sick without delay. Concealment of such disease is liable to heavy punishment under the Army Act.

(s) Male personnel will shave each morning prior to first mess parade, and hair will be kept short.

6 MAINTENANCE OF EQUIPMENT AND AMMUNITION.

(a) Personnel are responsible that arms, ammunitions, stores and equipment on issue to or held by them are correctly maintained at all times.

7 CHARGES AND PUNISHMENTS

Whenever a Non-commissioned officer or soldier is placed in arrest, the Officer Commanding will be informed without delay. Under no circumstances will a Non-commissioned officer or soldier is arrest be released, except with the permission of the Officer Commanding.

8 FIRE PRECAUTIONS

Standing Orders to cover this subject are issued separately and will be rigidly observed.

9 FIREARMS, SAFE CUSTODY.

Safe Custody of firearms is the responsibility of the person to whom they are issued.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2019.366.3286

10 HYGIENE AND SANITATION

The preservation of health of the soldier and prevention of disease is of paramount importance.

Properly protected facilities will be constructed in campand sites Strict supervision will be maintained over all kitchens, messes, latrines etc. to ensure that cleanliness and general hygiene principles are observed. Standing Orders for Cook Houses are attached as Appendix "B".

Anti malarial measures as laid down will be strictly enforced when the unit is in a malarial area.

11 ORDERS OF HIGHER AUTHORITY.

It is of greatest importance that implicit obedience is paid to all orders of any higher authority under whose command the unit or part thereof may be.

12 PASSIVE AIR DEFENCE AND GAS.

Unit Standing Orders for protection against Gas and Air Raids issued separately will be promulgated to all ranks and strictly observed.

13 SECURITY.

(a) All ranks will exercise constant care to prevent leakage of information through indiscreet conversation. Disclosure, even amongst friends, while on leave, of impending moves of themselves or their Unit is forbidden.

(b) Documents, maps, secret and confidential papers will not be left lying about in offices, tents or billets. Those in charge of offices will ensure that all drafts of orders, stencils, waste paper etc are destroyed by burning.

(c) A unit register of cameras will be kept by the O.C. Cameras may be withdrawn at any time.

14 ATTACHMENTS.

All personnel attached will conform with these orders.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2019.366.3286

ATTACHED PERSONNEL

Extracts from GRO 69 of 23.2.45

Permanently attached in accordance with specific provision in the WE of the Unit to which attached:---

Such personnel are possessed of arm, corps or service identity and are not of unit identity.

Command:--

Attached personnel posted to specific appointments provided in WEs are under the direct command of the CO of the unit to which they are so attached.

The senior officer of the arm, corps or service in the formation etc will exercise technical control and supervision over all personnel of that arm, corps or service who are permanently attached to units under command of the formation etc.

Transfer, promotion and reduction of such attached personnel will be effected through command channels, but (except in the case of reduction by summary award or by sentence of court-martial) the matter will be first referred to the senior officer of the appropriate arm, corps or service in the formation etc. for his recommendation from the "service" aspect.

Attention is directed to GRO A. 354/1944 (COs for purpose of discipline) relative to the disciplinary command of attached personnel.

Extracts from GRO A.354/1944
Cos for purpose discipline.

The CO of a unit is, for the purpose of the administration of discipline, the CO of all members of other units while they are individually attached to his unit, irrespective of whether the attachments are in accordance with the WE of his unit or not.

APPENDIX 'B'

SANITARY RULES FOR COOK-HOUSES.

1. No one must be employed in any capacity in the cook house or in handling the food of the troops who has suffered from typhoid fever paratyphoid fever of dysentery, or who is suffering from or under treatment for V.D.

2. Each cook and general duty personnel employed in handling the food of the troops will be provided with at least 3 sets of washable overalls. These overalls will always be worn at work. They will be kept as clean as possible, and changed when dirty.

3. A basin and clean water, soap, a nail brush and a clean towel will be provided in the cook house. All personnel employed as cooks and in the ahandling of food will keep their nails trimmed and will invariably wash their hands before they handle the food. This basin is for the Cook's personal use only.

4. No personal clothing, necessaries or private property of personnel employed in the cook-house will be kept there; nor will they perform their toilet or wash and dry their underclothes in the cook-house.

Greatcoats, jackets and trousers, which are taken to the cook-house and removed before overalls are put on, will be kept in a special place provided for that purpose.

5. Smoking in the cook house is forbidden.

6. The cook in charge will be responsible that there is always a sufficient supply of clean clothes available for washing and drying dishes and cooking utensils. The cloths used for handling hot and sooty vessels will be separate and distinct. After the last meal cloths must be boiled in water containing washing soda and hung up to dry.

7. All pots and pans will be freed from grease, cleaned and dried after the last meal, and placed on a shelf on their sides with the interiors exposed to the air and to view.

8. The cook house sinks, and tables, chopping blocks, cutting-up boards, pastry slabs, mincing machines, knives, forks and spoons, and all other utensils will be kept as clean an possible when in use and will be thoroughly cleaned after the last meal. All utensils, when not in use, will be kept in the places allocated for them and will be available for inspection at any time.

9. Only food which is to be used during the current day will be kept in the cook house.

When not in process of cooking or in preparation for cooking it will be protected from flies by being covered with muslin receptacles or kept in fly proof food safes.

10. Vegetables must never be prepared in the same sink or receptacle in which pots and pans are cleaned.

11. Food scraps, vegetable peelings and such like refuse will be deposited in covered refuse bins provided for the purpose.

12. All cutting up of meat and pastry will be done on the cutting up boards and pastry slabs provided for the purpose and never on the cook house tables.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2019.366.3286

13. Where possible the floors of the cook house will be cleansed daily by scrubbing with hot water containing soda, or soap and creosol solution. All excess of water must be dried up after scrubbing.

14. Under no circumstances will the cook house, or quarters be used as sleeping quarters.

15. Any defect in the cooking apparatus or in the utensils will be reported at once by the cook in charge to the Officer Commanding.
