247. ENEMY AIR FORCE EQUIPMENT

- 1. This instruction deals with the guarding and disposal of captured onemy air force equipment and is in amplification of previous instructions.
- Enemy air force equipment is defined as crashed or captured aircraft, maintenance installations, name plates, fuselage or parts, parachutes, flying suits and caps, stencils on life saving equipment.
- 3. As soon as practicable after such equipment has been located, it will be recovered and stored in a safe place or a guard placed or it until RAMF can assume responsibility for disposal, Guards will be maintained until authority has been given for their recoval.
- 4. Details of equipment captured will be forwarded without delay to this headquarters which will arrange for inspection by RAAF Technical Air Intelligence.
- 5. All troops will be advised that enemy air force quipment is often of value. They will be sured that souveniring is prohibited until an inspection has been made and the equipment released as being of no intelligence value and not required by BMAF salvare.
- 6. This instruction will be promulgated without delay as it is expected that much equipment will be found on or in the vicinity of the WEMAK and BORAH stripe.

248. ROAD DISCIPLINE

It is viewed with displeasure and concern the complete lack of road discipline by MT drivers. In future Ost will ensure that the following is observed:-

- (a) Drivers will maintain a 60 yard interval between vehicles.
- (b) When halted, vehicles will pull clear of the road so as not to obstruct traffic.
- (c) When a vehicle is bogged or broken down, the
- driver will direct traffic around his vehicle.
 (d) On troop carrying transport, troops will vacate the vehicle when in danger of bogging, and before the vehicle has bogged, assist by pushing.
- (e) Provost will strictly police points snumerated above.

Officers and NGO's on vehicles will be held 2. personally responsible for any infringement in this regard.

249. PAY

Personnel desirous of pay this pay period will hand in paybooks to Platoon Sergeants and inform him of amount required.

Platoon Sergeants will enter amounts on Pay Schedules and hand in Paybooks and Pay Schedules to Coy Orderly Room by 0830 hours 15 May, 1945.
