1. An armed patrol consisting of 1 offr, and 6 ORs supplied by 66 Aust Inf Bn was despatched by MT to ONOMICHI on 27 Aug 48 to search for weapons used in the above disturbance.

2. (a) Instructions issued to the patrol stated that, in conjunction with the civil police and det 36 Aust FS Sec ONOMICHI :-

(i) A search for weapons would be carried out in the homes of personnel involved in the fight.

(ii) All weapons found would be confiscated and returned to this HQ.

(b) In addition the police were to be questioned regarding their actions at the time of the disturbance.

3. The patrol arrived at ONOMICHI at 1800 hrs 27 Aug and arranged for 26 houses in MATSUNAGA and ONOMICHI to be searched the following day. It was decided NOT to search TAKASU village as the personnel of this village were unarmed at the time they were attacked.

4. Prior to the search the police had already confiscated 10 swords. Two more swords were located by the patrol in ONOMICHI.

5. Whilst the police at MATSUNAGA were most diligent it was noticeable that the ONOMICHI police were reluctant to carry out a thorough search. The search at ONOMICHI was eventually taken over by the patrol.

6. Further investigations revealed that the ONOMICHI police were afraid to conduct a proper search owing to fear of reprisals by the suspects. All suspects belong to a gambling combine controlled by TAKAHASHI Tokujiro and this "Gang" is considered to exert a detrimental influence on the social life of the community. This information has been passed to HQ CHUGOKU Mil Gov Region.

7. The patrol returned to HIRO on 28 Aug 48 and delivered 12 swords to this HQ. All swords are of inferior quality, 10 badly rusted and damaged.

SOCIAL OUTCAST SLAIN IN HIROSHIMA FIGHTING

II OTHERS HURT BY GANGSTERS.

Some 4500 members of the National ETA (social, outcasts) Liberation Committee on Monday swarmed into the offices of the Hiroshima Prefectural Government, and demanded the destruction of gangsterdom in the Prefecture, immediate resignation of the Pref. Public Safety Comm. and immediate discharge of the Chief and Other officers of the NUMAKUDA Area Police Station.

They told the Prefectural Authorities that one of them had been slain, and eleven others seriously injured by gangsters, and that negligence on the part of the Police had been partially responsible for the bloody incidents. Pref. Authorities said that a formal reply would be made by Sept 6 after an intensive probe into the case.

The trouble started on the night of Aug 5 when a festival was held at the village of TAKASU, NUMAKUDA Gun, on the border of Hiroshima and Okayama Prefs, when hoodlums, allegedly belonging to the SHIMIZU Gumi, picked a fight with members of the FUJIWARA Gumi, which is made up of the village's outcast people. The challenge was immediately accepted by the outcast villagers but no decisive battle was fought that night. The next morning a Policeman stationed in the village heard a rumour that the Shimizu was planning a surprise attack on the Fujiwara Gumi and lost no time in reporting the tense atmosphere in the village to the Chief of the Numakuda Police Station.

The villagers held a court on how to fight back the invaders. The worst came to the worst at the villagers Youth ball the same evening when some 60 members of the rival Shimizu Gumi and the KATSUGA Gumi, all armed with Jap swords and bamboo spears attacked the outcasts.

In a hand to hand fight that followed, Shimichi Hatori, a villager, was cut to pieces while 11 others were seriously injured. An eye witness said the man was slain before a village Policeman.

Subject : CONSERVATION OF WATER

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: QG1832
6 Sep 48

1. A review of budgetary expenditure shows that water consumption in BCOF is 850 gallons per head per day which is far in excess of the authorised scale of 200 to 225 gallons per person per day as laid down by HQ 8th US Army.

2. Some of the causes contributing to this wastage are as follows :-

(a) Hosing of MT Vehicles by use of oversize hoses

(b) Hoses left running when not required

(c) Taps and showers left running after use.

(d) Flushing of bathing pools in excess of requirements

(e) Major leakages in pipes.

3. It is further pointed out that the uneconomical use of water, places an unnecessary strain upon the BCOF budgetary allocation for engineer maintenance and utilities and results in the curtailment of other engineer maintenance and utilities which units would normally receive.

4. The water supply system at HIRO is strained to the full by this excessive rate of consumption and in the event of a emergency, such as fire, it may be found that the water in the reservoirs is inadequate. By avoiding undue waste and conserving water so that the slow supply from the dam to the reservoirs via filter beds is not exceeded, sufficient stocks will be held in the two small reservoirs to cater for emergency and ensure adequate water pressures.

5. All units will take steps to reduce water wastage to an absolute minimum.

34 AUST INF BDE WELFARE NOTES

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde

BLANCO MIXTURE

1. The following recipe can be used for whitening of web equipment during shortages of commercial preparations.

(a) Ingredients

1 Part Starch
7 Parts Whiting
12 Parts Water

(b) Method

Mix Starch and Whiting thoroughly, then add sufficient water to make a paste, and gradually add up to 10 parts of water. Bring to near-boil slowly and then simmer for several minutes adding the other two parts of water (hot) as required. Before removing from fire and 1/3 part of blue water.

(c) Application

Webbing should be thoroughly washed and partially dried before application. Most satisfactory method of application is by mean of a small brush.

CANTEENS PRICE LIST

2. Two copies of BCOF Canteens Service Official Price List, BAFSV Currency No 2, operative from 1 Aug 48 have been received at HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde. One copy is available at HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde Orderly Room and the other copy is on view at the ANZAC Club, HIRO, so that all personnel may now ascertain current prices.

Unfortunately, due to the shortage in staff it is impossible to keep the books fully amended. Amended prices are always available at the local Canteen Issue Point.

CINEMA SHOWS

3. It is understood that a shortage of entertainment films may occur in the next few weeks. At best it is likely that some films already shown in BCOF will, for a time, have to be put on again.

BCOF Amenities Service have been struggling to solve the problem for some time. It has been brought by the dollar shortage.

Briefly, the UK only produces about 60 films a year. The balance to make three programmes a week are American. The British AKC agency, which has supplied films for BCOF for over two years, is now unable to provide American films unless BCOF pays dollars for them. On the other hand their agreements prevent their British films being leased by BCOF to US Forces in JAPAN for dollars. BCOF has no dollar resources otherwise.

Australian film organizations are now taking over supply of films to BCOF but there are likely to be some delays and difficulties until the new service is working smoothly.

PURCHASE OF MOTOR CYCLES BY MEMBERS OF BCOF

4. It has been ascertained that it is proposed to offer Motor Cycles for sale to members of the BCOF in the same way as jeeps have been recently offered.

Although full particulars will not be available for about a fortnight, there is no objection to bids being lodged at this HQ for transmission to the BCOF Disposals Committee.

BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OCCUPATION FORCE

Subject : STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: AG5766
17 Sep 48

The Commander-in-Chief has directed that the following matters be brought to the notice of all officers in order that they in turn may instruct all ranks.

1. There is a tendency for everyone, under the stress of war, to swing too much away from the methods and standards which civilised countries have found necessary in peace.

2. Regular forces (Navies, Armies and Air Forces) spend much longer at peace than they do at war, and they have very definite peace time duties for which training must be given in addition to that which is necessary for readiness for war.

3. Many men who join regular forces are ignorant of these duties, and must be taught them if they are to be worth keeping in the forces. They must also be given information in 'smoko' chats or in other unofficial ways divorced from strict parade ground work, to enable them to learn all those things which a regular sailor, soldier or airman of long service has acquired, but which the civilian often has not even thought about.

4. For instance, regular forces should be the models of law, order and behaviour ever present as an example for all citizens to see. It is their duty to obey and support the law, not to break it. It is likewise their duty to set an example of courtesy and kindliness to all around them so that the forces win the respect and admiration of their countrymen who in fact employ them.

In the older countries where regular forces have existed throughout the ages, those facts are well understood, and that is one of the reasons why NCOs and men of long service, good conduct and reliability have always been much sought after in civilian life when they left the service of their country. If, of course, they, as they so often do, have technical qualifications in addition, then the competition for their services is keener. It is, however, those fine qualities of citizenship, courtesy, example, thoroughness and pride in performance of their task which have won them this position.

5. Human nature is such that training and guidance under firm control are always beneficial. That is why countries with regular forces have always looked to those forces to make good citizens of their members and to give an example to those who have not had the advantage of regular training.

...For instance,/

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2020.71.8678

5. (Cont'd) For instance, one often, unfortunately, nowadays sees young men sitting down in trams, buses and trains when women (often elderly) have to stand. But it would startle the public of Great Britain if, for instance, a Guardsman remained sitting under such circumstances. Not only would he be conspicuous by reason of his uniform, but the public rightly expect that he will set an example quite irrespective of what those without his training may do. Courtesy from the regular sailor, soldier and airman is part of his standards, and he should have a pride in those standards.

A habit which causes much offence and often acute distress is that of whistling as a form of applause at cinemas, concerts, etc. This seems to have grown up among children who were without parental guidance when their fathers were away at the war. It appears in some sections only of the force, and when it does causes distress to the ear drums. Whatever others may do, there is no reason why regular forces should follow the bad example. They should set the example of consideration for others, which may in turn cause those without their training to realise the distress they are causing.

6. The development of pride not only of unit or of arm of the service, but also of nation, is an important factor. The sailor, soldier or airman who dresses well, behaves well and reflects the highest standards in everything, is of far greater value to himself and to his country than one who is too lazy or casual to make the effort.

7. The standards throughout BCOF have been good, but they are marred by the ignorant few and the thoughtless few. It is the responsibility of all to see that their good name is not spoiled by those few.

Officers, Warrant and NCOs, will give this matter their attention.

Subject : GUARDS AND FIREMEN - HOURS OF WORK

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: QG1978
22 Sep 48

1. Various systems are in operation for the employment of Guards and Firemen regarding hours of work such as :-

(a) 24 hrs shift i.e. 24 hrs on and 24 hrs off duty.

(b) 12 hrs shift.

(c) 8 hrs per day, 40 hrs per week.

2. The Japanese desire is to work the 24 hrs shift system thereby incurring large overtime pay and also allowing the employee to work in some other capacity every second day. This is NOT in the best interests of BCOF and the following will govern their employment :-

(a) Employment will be on an 8 hrs per day, 40 hrs per week basis. This requires careful rostering and for the assistance of Area Labour Officers a copy of a roster drawn up for this system is attached as Appendix 'A'. It will be noted that four guards are required for a 24 hrs cover on each post.

(b) When employing guards there is a tendency to adopt the army system of 2 hrs on guard and 4 hrs resting. This is NOT necessary and the Japanese guards are expected to be "on guard" for the full eight hours.

(c) Area Labour Officers have been instructed to investigate the Guards and Firemen Systems within their Areas and introduce the 8 hrs per day 40 hrs per week principle from 1 Oct 48.

(d) Wages for guards and firemen are now paid on a basis of a 40 hrs week and the old system of adjusting the wage to allow for longer hours has been discarded. Consequently guards are entitled to night allowance, overtime etc in a similar manner to other classifications of employees.

3. A classification of night watchman has been used in the past to designate an employee guarding domestic premises. The value of the classification has now diminished and in future all employees guarding property will be known as guards. Unit entitlements will be amended accordingly.

WAR DIARY

Subject : MISUSE OF TRANSPORT

Ref : HQ BCOF Adm Instr 134 of 5 Aug 48.

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: Q62044
29 Sep 48

1. Acting on instructions received from this Headquarters, 34 Aust Inf Bde Pro Coy conducted a check of all vehicles moving along the road HIRO - KURE, on which a bus service operates, between 0700 hrs 18 Sep 48 and 0100 hrs 19 Sep 48.

2. From a close study of the result of the check, contained in Appendix 'A', it will be apparent to all addressees that many individuals and units are not observing transport restrictions contained in HQ BCOF Adm Instr 134 of 5 Aug 48, which was forwarded to units under cover of 34 Aust Inf Bde Q61615 of 12 Aug 48.

3. It would therefore appear that daily checks of G2s vide paragraph 20 of Adm Instr 134 are not being carried out. These checks must be instituted where such action has not already been taken, and breaches of the instruction dealt with by unit COs and OsC.

4. Other points contained in Adm Instr 134 and requiring attention to ensure no breaches occur in the future are :-

(a) That authorisations and the nature of the duty (vide paragraphs 4 and 9) are endorsed on the vehicle G2.

(b) That for all personnel under the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel mechanical transport, other than for load carrying, will not be used on duty over a route on which a bus service operates - subject to the exceptions contained in paragraph 5 of the instruction.

(c) That except in emergency, approvals and endorsements are made only by the officers designated in paragraph 6.

(d) That transport for amenities purposes is not used over a route covered by a bus service. Personnel in the HIRO area wishing to visit the KURE Officers Club and other recreation centres in the KURE area should note that the existing bus service is quite suitable for travel to and from KURE.

(e) That units within one mile of picture shows and recreational centres do not use transport for trips to such places unless it is raining.

(f) That units maintain a register of authorised amenities trips.

....(g)/

(g) That justifiable exceptions to these instructions are properly endorsed on the G2, and that the pro-forma attached to the Administrative Instruction is filled out and attached to the G2 as required by paragraph 13(f). Failure to comply with this requirement is most noticeable and merits special attention.

5. Units will investigate all cases of non-observance of H.Q. BCOF Adm Instr 134 that are apparent after close study of Appendix A, and take steps to ensure all the points outlined above are enforced.

6. Further transport checks will be held in the future and all ranks are requested to "play the game" so that the introduction of firmer measures can be avoided.

AMF COMPONENT INSTRUCTION 89

FINALIZATION OF THE SERVICES OF MALE OFFICERS EMPLOYED ON FULL TIME DUTY OTHER THAN ARA

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
29 Sep 48

1. The following is the text of AHQ 23819 of 9 Sep 48:-

" In view of the anticipated increase in the strength of ARA officers as a result of action taken vide MBI 50/48, the finalization of the services of male officers employed on FTD, other than ARA officers and officers commissioned from PMF Other Ranks, will be effected in accordance with the provisions of this instruction.

2. The date by which the services of all such officers shall be finalized has been tentatively fixed as 31 May 49. This date is tentative only and will depend upon the time taken to bring the ARA officer strength up to establishment. Any variation from the date given, however, will probably result in bringing it forward.

3. Where it is considered essential in the interests of the service to retain any officer of the categories affected beyond 31 May 49, application must be made to AHQ for approval and full reasons must be stated.

4. Each officer who is retained beyond 31 May 49 must be informed that by continuing to serve beyond 30 Jun 49, he will lose his right to make application for the following benefits under the Re-establishment and Re-employment Act:-

(a) post discharge training and supplementing of wages during training.
(b) Re-employment by his previous employer.
(c) Resumption of a suspended apprenticeship.
(d) Medical treatment and sustenance in respect to injuries etc not attributable to war service.

Each request to AHQ for approval to retain an officer beyond 31 May 49 must be accompanied by a statement from the officer concerned to the effect that he clearly understands that, by continuing to serve, he will lose such rights.

5. Commands etc will submit to AHQ by 31 Oct 48 a schedule showing the names of officers whom it is proposed to release each month from incl Nov 48 to incl May 49, together with a list of officers concerning whom it is proposed to submit special requests for retention beyond 31 May 49."

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2020.71.8678

2. The above instruction will necessitate reconsideration of the proposals for the officering of BCOF as at 1 Jan 49. In this connection further instructions will follow.

3. A semi-completed alphabetical list of officer applicants for appointment to ARA whose applications have NOT been approved will be issued separately.

Subject : CONSERVATION OF WATER

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: AG1852
6 Sep 48

1. A review of budgetary expenditure shows that water consumption in BCOF is 850 gallons per head per day which is far in excess of the authorised scale of 200 to 225 gallons per person per day as laid down by HQ 8th US Army.

2. Some of the causes contributing to this wastage are as follows :-

(a) Hosing of MT Vehicles by use of oversize hoses.

(b) Hoses left running when not required

(c) Taps and showers left running after use.

(d) Flushing of bathing pools in excess of requirements

(e) Major leakages in pipes.

3. It is further pointed out that the uneconomical use of water, places an unnecessary strain upon the BCOF budgetary allocation for engineer maintenance and utilities and results in the curtailment of other engineer maintenance and utilities which units would normally receive.

4. The water supply system at HIRO is strained to the full by this excessive rate of consumption and in the event of a emergency, such as fire, it may be found that the water in the reservoirs is inadequate. By avoiding undue waste and conserving water so that the slow supply from the dam to the reservoirs via filter beds is not exceeded, sufficient stocks will be held in the two small reservoirs to cater for emergency and ensure adequate water pressures.

5. All units will take steps to reduce water wastage to an absolute minimum.

BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OCCUPATION FORCE

Subject : STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

HQ 34 Aust Inf Bde
Ref No: AG5766
17 Sep 48

The Commander-in-Chief has directed that the following matters be brought to the notice of all officers in order that they in turn may instruct all ranks.

1. There is a tendency for everyone, under the stress of war, to swing too much away from the methods and standards which civilised countries have found necessary in peace.

2. Regular forces (Navies, Armies and Air Forces) spend much longer at peace than they do at war, and they have very definite peace time duties for which training must be given in addition to that which is necessary for readiness for war.

3. Many men who join regular forces are ignorant of these duties, and must be taught them if they are to be worth keeping in the forces. They must also be given information in 'smoko' chats or in other unofficial ways divorced from strict parade ground work, to enable them to learn all those things which a regular sailor, soldier or airman of long service has acquired, but which the civilian often has not even thought about.

4. For instance, regular forces should be the models of law, order and behaviour ever present as an example for all citizens to see. It is their duty to obey and support the law, not to break it. It is likewise their duty to set an example of courtesy and kindliness to all around them so that the forces win the respect and admiration of their countrymen who in fact employ them.

In the older countries where regular forces have existed throughout the ages, those facts are well understood, and that is one of the reasons why NCOs and men of long service, good conduct and reliability have always been much sought after in civilian life when they left the service of their country. If, of course, they, as they so often do, have technical qualifications in addition, then the competition for their services is keener. It is, however, those fine qualities of citizenship, courtesy, example, thoroughness and pride in performance of their task which have won them this position.

5. Human nature is such that training and guidance under firm control are always beneficial. That is why countries with regular forces have always looked to those forces to make good citizens of their members and to give an example to those who have not had the advantage of regular training.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL AWM2020.71.8678

5. (Cont'd) For instance, one often, unfortunately, nowadays sees young men sitting down in trams, buses and trains when women (often elderly) have to stand. But it would startle the public of Great Britain if, for instance, a Guardsman remained sitting under such circumstances. Not only would he be conspicuous by reason of his uniform, but the public rightly expect that he will set an example quite irrespective of what those without his training may do. Courtesy from the regular sailor, soldier and airman is part of his standards, and he should have a pride in those standards.

A habit which causes much offence and often acute distress is that of whistling as a form of applause at cinemas, concerts, etc. This seems to have grown up among children who were without parental guidance when their fathers were away at the war. It appears in some sections only of the force, and when it does causes distress to the ear drums. Whatever others may do, there is no reason why regular forces should follow the bad example. They should set the example of consideration for others, which may in turn cause those without their training to realise the distress they are causing.

6. The development of pride not only of unit or of arm of the service, but also of nation, is an important factor. The sailor, soldier or airman who dresses well, behaves well and reflects the highest standards in everything, is of far greater value to himself and to his country than one who is too lazy or casual to make the effort.

7. The standards throughout BCOF have been good, but they are marred by the ignorant few and the thoughtless few. It is the responsibility of all to see that their good name is not spoiled by those few.

Officers, Warrant and NCOs, will give this matter their attention.
