513. M.T. - ECONOMY IN USE.
The attention of all ranks is again drawn to the need for strictest economy in use of M.T. Not only is the need great in relation to P.O.L. but economy in rubber is even more necessary in view of the difficulty of supply. It is the duty of each driver to conserve his vehicle and equipment to the utmost by a high standard of maintenance and driving. Officers and N.C.O.s. will ensure that these principles are rigidly adherred to.
