A AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTY

"It's fine him here and fine him there—curse the ——brute!

But it's God bless the —— Motorist when the guns begin to shoot!"

The long line of Khaki is part of the Leatherheads marching past Parliament House, Melbourne.

When the dust-gray foe is massed And the frontier line is passed, You must get your asstar'd troops there double-quick;
You have get your asstar'd troops there double-quick;
At the horse and patient suile,
Be' no animal on earth can turn the trick.

There's a call for men from Liege
To withstand the racking siege.
Mothers kneel and prays to God to intervene:
Mothers of grin Mars
Mobility the motor can.
And the appirt that they praise is passing.

It is gas-o-line,
Blood of motors, hope of monarchs,
gasoline;
Little prizes when used for pleasure,
But, when armies clash, a treasure,
Taking men to fight and perish, gasoline.

y J. C.
