

ベルリンおつ

無理に人をして、無理に國
 をして鬪はしめたヒトラ
 にもつひに來るものが來
 た。人多ければ天に勝つも
 天定つて天必ず人に勝つこ
 れは古今東西を通じての
 理である。人を殺すこと數
 百万ヨロツパを云ふべから
 ざる無慚むざんにおとししいれた
 ナチスは亡びた。ヨロツパに
 また平和が來る。支那日本
 東亞にも曰ならずしてま
 た楽しい平和が來るもの
 であらう。

BERLIN FALLS

Berlin, capital of Nazi Germany, has been captured. The war in Europe is moving towards its close.

Hitler, the man who forced his country and his people into an unjustifiable war, is meeting his inevitable fate.

If man in great numbers acts against Heaven he may for awhile appear to be victorious. However, Heaven is always vindicated and in the end "Justice" always proves to be stronger than man. This is the truth for all times, for the East as for the West.

The might of the Nazis who caused the death of millions of men and who plunged Europe into unspeakable misery is now destroyed.

Peace is returning to Europe.

It will not be long before the blessings of peace will be again bestowed, also upon China, Japan and the other peoples of East Asia.

TARGET: Japanese Troops—General.

DISTRIBUTION: Immediately Berlin is captured.