

President and Madam Poincare says:
 "Your 'Anzac Marseillaise' is a 'Musical Masterpiece.'"

DRILL (3rd) 4100

Written and Composed by
 A. J. SMITH

FIFTH EDITION

L. CHESTER

DINSDALE'S PTY. LTD.

MUSIC PUBLISHERS

269 SWANSTON STREET, MELBOURNE

E 199

Printed in England,
 Australia and New Zealand.

PRINTED BY

Singing, Talking Machine and Cinematograph Rights Reserved by the Composer.

THE ANZAC MARSEILLAISE

Words and Music by]

[A. J. SMITH

Tempo di Marcia

Piano ff

3+ 1 2 4 3+ 1 2 4 3+ 1 2 3 4 3+

Soldiers in Kha - ki, Sailors in Navy so strong, waiting so

Blue, Fighting on Land and Sea long, Enemy's Dreadnoughts to see ; But Fighting for England's Can al, they

dear old Flag, Our Homes and Lib - er ty have a good Pal singing: "Better stay here with me Plenty of Must not go

Extra Verse.

Hats off once more, to the Rich or the Poor,
Bravely they fought and fell;
Trying to say, as they passed away,
Come, Lads, and give us a spell!
Duty's well done, glories they won,
Fighting to keep us Free;
Like Kitchener the Brave, Old England to Save,
And Australia the best o'er the Sea.

With British Blood, we'll always be the same,
And keep up the Anzacs' GLORIOUS NAME.

The Anzac Marseillaise !]

Barker & Cousins, Distinctive Printers,

Pluck, but jolly bad luck, Landing at the Dar - dan - elle : But, out, while Big Lizzie's a - bout With Bulldogs and Kanga roos Who,

Playing the Game, they made such a Name, Which all the World has learned how to spell!
 once on the deep, sent the Emden to sleep, With a Motto: "Always Win! Never Lose!"

Count the letters, they are on - ly NINE : But in His - to - ry this name will always
 We must never forget An - zac Day! NO! So join me in this new Mar - seil - shine ——— ! A - U - S - T - R - A - L - I - A ! They are the laise ——— !

CHORUS

The Anzac Marseillaise!]

Barker & Cousins, Distinctive Printers

Boys who - al - ways lead the way. All the Na - tions say: Hip, Hip, Hoo ray! the Kan - garoo's a Soldier and a Sail - or; When they hear the Bugle give the call, Good - bye Mother, dear, Brothers and Sisters all; Day & night we're going to Fight, till the

	1st TIME	2nd TIME
Enemy's out of sight, and we'll teach them how to spell the name Austra	lia!	lia! D.C.

The Anzac Marseillaise!]

Australian War Memorial

AWM057312