E. A. Nicholls

E. A. NICHOLLS

SONG.—"I can't find a place for that."

Words by RALPH ROBERTS.

Music by HAROLD MONTAGUE.

D

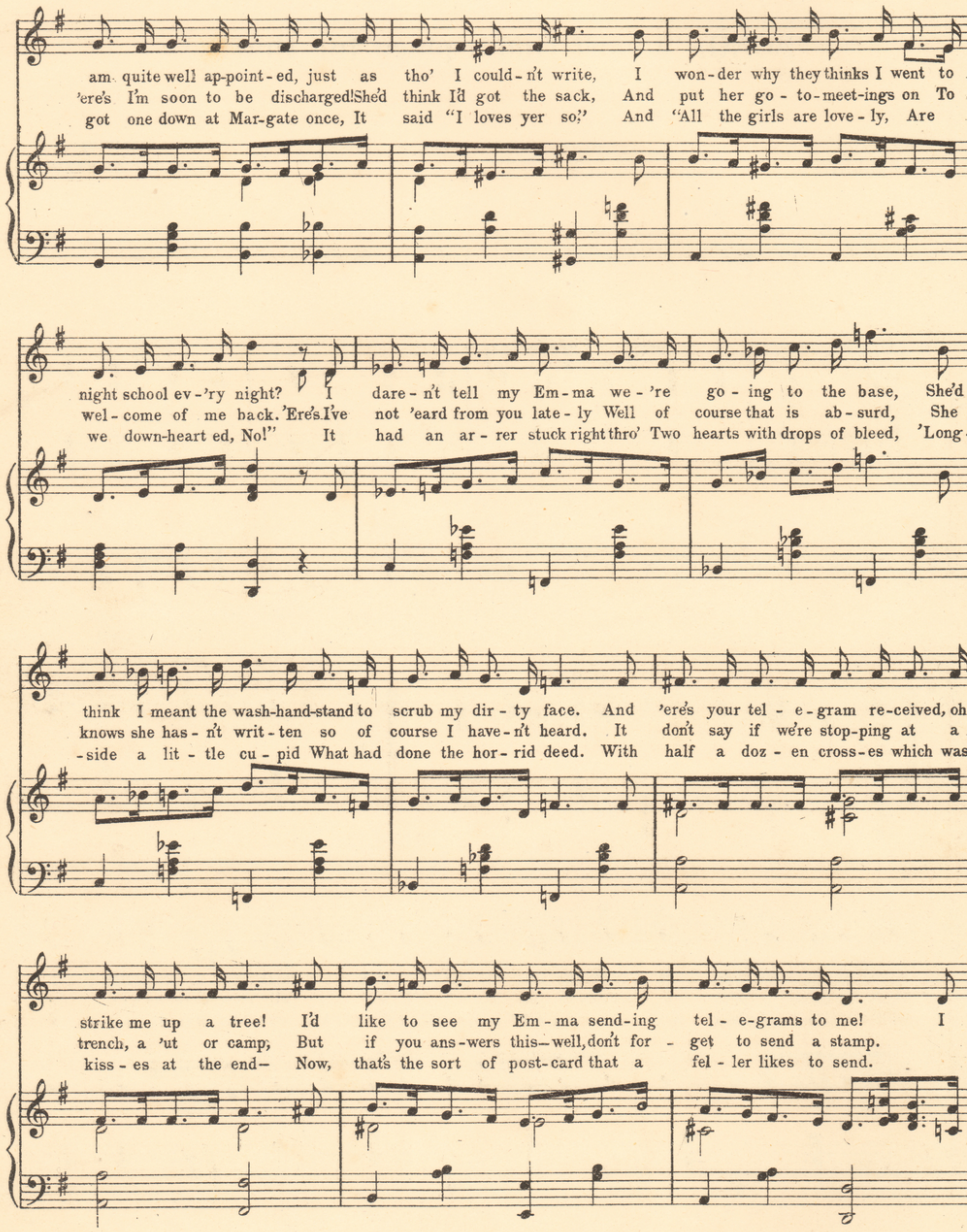
Copyright, MCMXVI, by Ascherberg, Hopwood & Crew, Ltd.

A. H. & C. Ltd. 9754.

DONATED RECORDS LIST
3820
3rd Series

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL
E 385

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL
RC10870



am quite well ap-point-ed, just as tho' I could-n't write, I won-der why they thinks I went to 'ere's I'm soon to be discharged! She'd think I'd got the sack, And put her go - to-meet-ings on To got one down at Mar-gate once, It said "I loves yer so;" And "All the girls are love - ly, Are night school ev-'ry night? I dare-n't tell my Em-ma we-'re go - ing to the base, She'd wel - come of me back. 'Ere's I've not 'eard from you late - ly Well of course that is ab - surd, She we down-heart ed, No!" It had an ar - rer stuck right thro' Two hearts with drops of bleed, 'Long - think I meant the wash-hand-stand to scrub my dir - ty face. And 'ere's your tel - e - gram re-ceived, oh knows she has - n't writ - ten so of course I have-n't heard. It don't say if we're stop-ping at a -side a lit - tle cu - pid What had done the hor - rid deed. With half a doz - en cross-es which was strike me up a tree! I'd like to see my Em - ma send-ing tel - e-grams to me! I trench, a 'ut or camp; But if you ans-wers this—well, don't for - get to send a stamp.
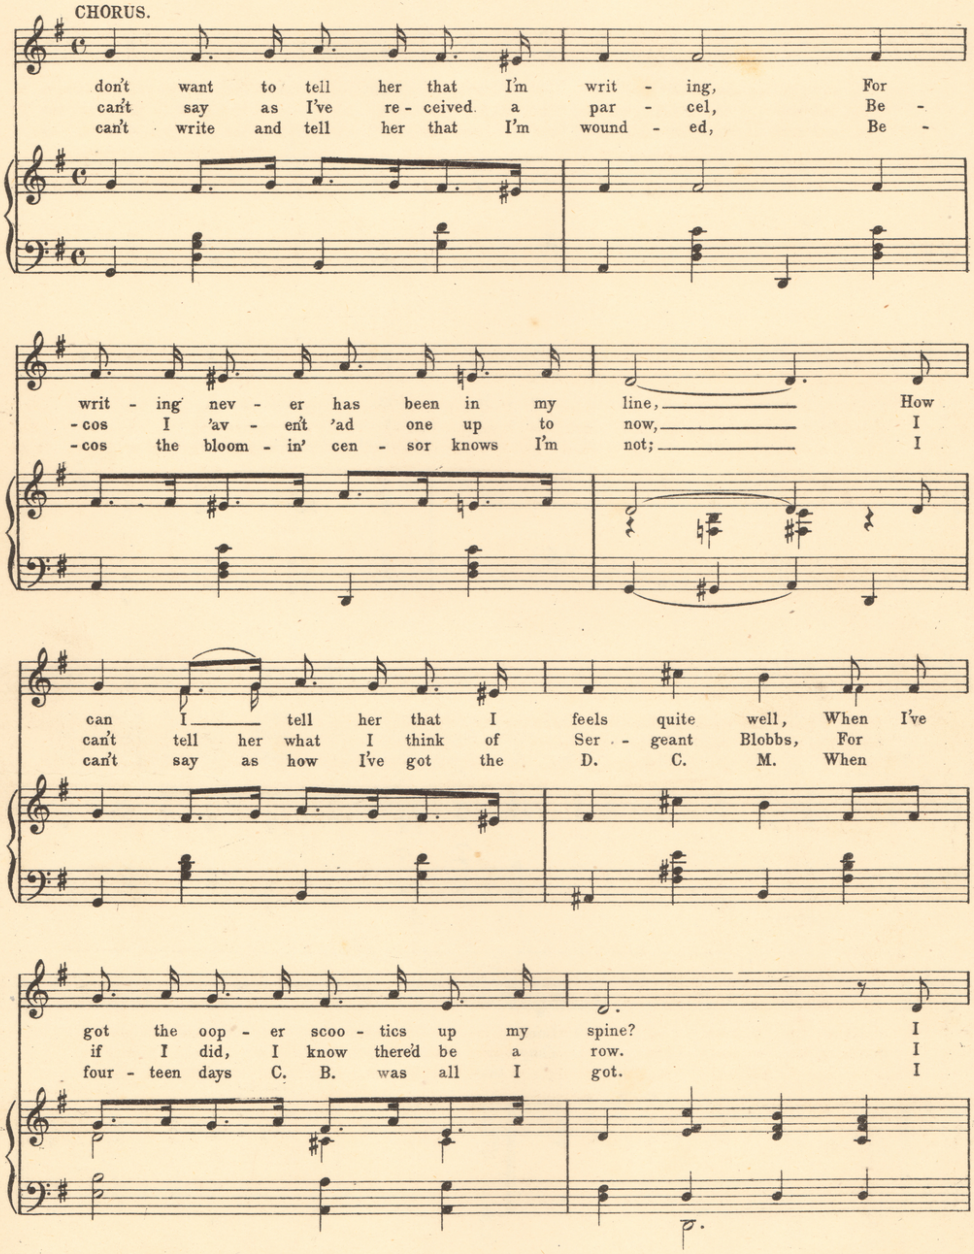
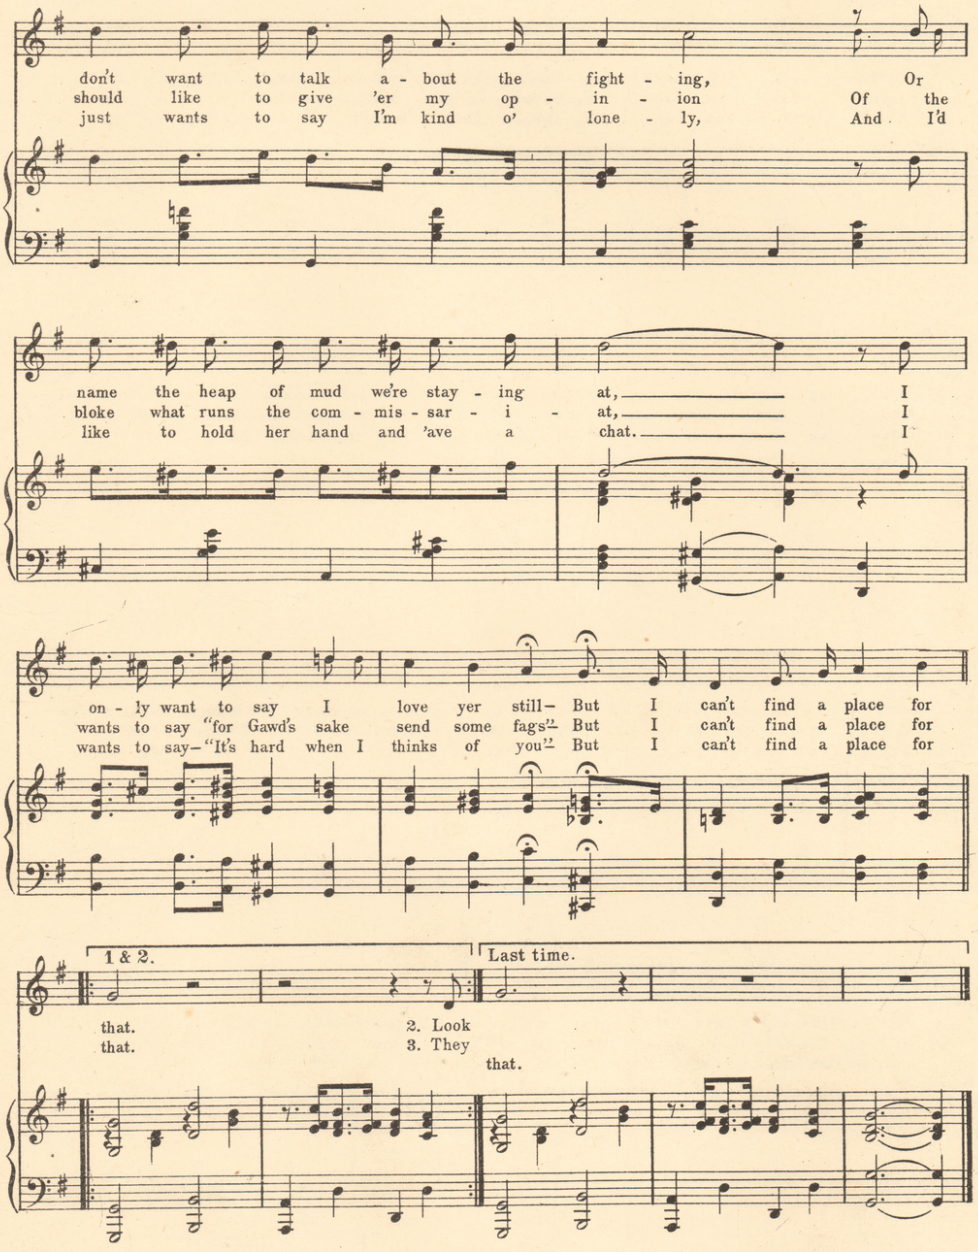
kiss - es at the end— Now, that's the sort of post-card that a fel - ler likes to send.

CHORUS.



AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL RC10870



AWM048111
Printed & Written Records
Australian War Memorial

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL RC10870

A GREAT LONDON REVUE SUCCESS!

BACK TO BLIGHTY

By SYDNEY BLOW and DOUGLAS HOARE.

Music by PHILIP BRAHAM and HERBERT E. HAINES.

Produced at the Oxford Music Hall, London, September 7th.

The "Daily Telegraph," September 8th, says:

"A particularly notable feature of the revue is the excellence of the music. It is all-British—not even a single number from America is interpolated—and Mr. Philip Braham and Mr. Herbert E. Haines are to be congratulated on the lilt and grace of their tunes and the extremely high standard of their musicianship. Their orchestration throughout is that of really able craftsmen—Mr. Braham's "Piccadilly Grill-room," "Sleep Walk"—a particularly effective number this—and "Rip van Winkle's Wedding" are as good ragtimes as ever came across the Atlantic, and were all excellently sung by Miss Beck. There is, too, the true comic opera flavour about Mr. Haines's "Put it in a Pigeon Hole," "The Duke's Daughters," sung by Mr. Montague, and the "Entrance of Committeemen." But, in point of fact, there is not a dull or pointless number in the entire burlesque."

THE FOLLOWING SONGS ARE NOW READY:

	Sung by	Composer
The Piccadilly Grill Room	Miss Clara Beck	Philip Braham
The Sleep Walk	Miss Clara Beck	Philip Braham
The Ragtime Duchess	Miss Phœbe Hodgson	Philip Braham
The Circus Trot	Miss Clara Beck	Philip Braham
The Four-Poster Bed	Miss Clara Beck	Philip Braham
Rip Van Winkle's Wedding	Miss Clara Beck	Philip Braham
Every Sort of Girl	Alec. Chentrens	Philip Braham
Selection for Piano - - - - - - - -		Arranged by Henri Jaxon

Published Prices: Song, 1/6; Selection, 2/-.

ASCHERBERG, HOPWOOD & CREW, Limited.

16, MORTIMER STREET, LONDON, W.

No. 1. L. & B.

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL RC10870