

Introduced by STANLEY KIRKBY, with Full Quartette Chorus.
The Beautiful Pathetic Theme.

"He Sleeps to-night by Lonesome Pine"

Lyrics by George Foster. (To our Brave Heroes who have fallen at the Dardanelles.) Music by Felix Le Roy.

Piano.

Moderato.

mf rit & dim.

VOICE

There's a lit-tle rus-tic cot-tage, There's a moth-er old and grey, And her
All the world has heard the sto-ry It shall live for ev-er more, How the

p

tears are soft-ly fall-ing for her boy who went a-way, He had Boys won death less glo-ry on that dis-tant An-zac shore, Ma-ny heard the call of du-ty and in bat-tle no-bly fell, Now in brave hearts now are si-lent ma-ny mo-ther's hearts will yearn, And they

JOE SLATER Publishing Co. Sydney.

si-lence she is griev-ing for the boy she loved so well. He eyes grow dim with weep-ing for the boys who'll ne'er re-turn.

rit.

colla voce. dim. & rit.

Chorus.

sleeps to-night by Lonesome Pine, in the far off Dar-da-nelles A wooden-cross on the mountain side his sto-ry sad-ly tells, He gave his life for his country's sake The bravest of the brave, But he sleeps to-night by the Lone-some Pine in a sol-diers lone-ly GRAVE

rit. molto rit.

colla voce. p

JOE SLATER Publishing Co. Sydney.