Railway Facilities for visiting Soldiers in Hospital in the United Kingdom.

FREE WARRANTS.—If the soldier is in a grave condition, the Medical Officer in Charge of the Hospital is authorised to issue a Free Railway Warrant to one relation to visit him, provided that the relation is not in a position to pay the fare.

Should the Medical Officer in Charge of the Hospital telegraph to the next-of-kin to proceed to the hospital without delay, a refund of the cost of the railway fare will be made under the condition laid down in para. I.

CHEAP TICKETS.—Medical Officers in Charge of Hospitals are authorised to issue Vouchers for Cheap Tickets, which allow the double journey at the single fare, to soldiers' relations under the following conditions:—

- A. That the journey is not less than 30 miles in the outward direction.
- B. That tickets will be issued for not more than two adults, or one adult and two children under 12.

Only one visit is allowed in each case, unless the Medical Officer in Charge of the Hospital should consider a second visit desirable.

N.B.—Applications for Vouchers should be addressed to the Medical Officers-in-Charge of Hospitals, to whose discretion the issue is entirely left.

Dear Mother,

All is well, back just in time. Sgt Beattie's brains saved the situation, we have shifted from one part of camp to another & things are upside down. They tell me parcel is in post office. Hope all are well. In haste
