My dear Grant.
Our I.O. has got special leave to proceed to England to get married - and I am asking Lieut Liffa to carry on while his return - I am writing you in order that you may not think that when Major Paine suggests Liffa pulling in a few days here he had any knowledge of such an arrangement.
I hope you will not be inconvenienced by the detention of Liffa but I was left with no other choice - He will return to you on Halford's return. Please explain to Lieut Liffa.

My dear White:

You will receive from this office operation order for tomorrow night. I wish you to give your very earnest attention to the carrying out of the precautions laid down and to the careful organization of movement, reporting, and liaison between your front line officers and those of R. S. Special Coy.

Also to promptness in reporting back to this Hqs. result of operation.

C. O. 35. Bn

My dear White -

The Divisional Commanders is anxious to obtain identifications if possible - Can you do anything with your patrol tomorrow night (27). Do do not wish us to carry out the banner scheme, but if you think you could meet with success with a small party let me know - You will be at liberty to draw on any of the party already trained -

You received information from O. P. regarding a Boche who goes out in front of P. 25. B. 70 to 80. wearing tin cans P. 25. B. 80 to 70. Could you buy up for this man?
