Dust cloud extended from about 472 and then as far as KILIBANKR plateau when it disappeared then reappeared about MARDIS. Unable to judge whether troops or transport. Direction of movement also uncertain owing to strong wind.
		4pm	ANZAC report 500 Turks killed in last night's attack a modest estimate. Turks fought most gloriously and at least 100 are lying quite close to our parapet. All bodies recovered have 200 rds ammunition and are well equipped evidently intending to stay as they brought their food with them.

		7pm	Liaison F.H. report French now consolidating line gained losses probably about 1500. V. Beach is being rather heavily shelled from Asia.
		7.50pm	Gen. GOURAUD to G.H.Q. saying all messages signed Liaisons have been passed by me.

If the Government sends a better brand of wine to replace that wasted by the shells from Asia, we will drink it to the health of our British comrades.
